

In Response to Fear and Purity : A Direct Response to Direct and Ongoing Attack
Addressing the statement/doxx of members of ARA by Nashville Antifa and Great Lakes Antifa
Addressing the hypocrisy and illegitimacy of these groups and their claims
Drafted by Nashville ARA with the support and endoresment of the Anti-Racist Action Network

The information contained here-in has been compiled and observed over the course of approximately one year. Between late 2016 / early 2017 and January 2018, the actions (or lack there of) of active members of Nashville Antifa and Great Lakes Antifa have impacted a number of organizations and affinity groups in not only the south region but extending to the east coast and northern region. There are those of us who have made our own conclusions about what their intentions or goals have been, or who they actually are. What we know for certain is that they have exhibited a consistent pattern of spreading misinformation, vouch kiting, slander and practices that are not only questionable but unacceptable.

Notes for navigating this communique:

The statement/doxx that we received from an anonymous source was drafted by Nashville Antifa/Great Lakes Antifa and to our knowledge has not been released. The statement/doxx was in the format of an 8 page PDF. We will break it down page by page, starting with a copy of each page before we discuss its contents. Quotes from their statement will be highlighted in yellow for clarity. Screenshots will be numbered in order and relevant names highlighted for clarity. This is a lot of information to process.

Our email address is at the end of this communique for any questions. There is no tl:dr for this document. It is long and it is all relevant.

People mentioned in this communique relevant to the doxx of ARA members

Ross AKA Sagan – Nashville Antifa

Tina – Nashville Antifa

Jennifer Gaddy AKA Professor AKA Falko – Nashville Antifa/Great Lakes Antifa

Jessica Nocero AKA Oracle AKA Fallon– Great Lakes Antifa

Jae Carico – TARN / Chattanooga Antifa

Eva Watler – Nashville Antifa / FNB

TJ Dunnigan – Chattanooga Antifa

This copy has been redacted**

Many folx have noticed for some time now that there seems to be a difference in opinions and tactics between two local anti-fascist crews in Nashville, Tennessee. These differences have at times made appearances on social media platforms, and at times have given no context for the basis of a shared opinion or reason for these two groups to be taking shots at one another on such a public platform. The purpose of this piece is multifaceted.

One objective is to be accountable as a chapter, for engaging other anti-fascists in a way that showed disregard for the third Point of Unity within the ARA Network which is non-sectarian defense of other anti-fascists. It is an inescapable fact of life that over the course of doing this work we will encounter people who will participate in this work for self serving reasons, who will lie to and deceive us. We nonetheless have a responsibility to be willing and ready accomplices to marginalized folx that have trusted us enough to give us the opportunity to work with them in these spaces: to those comrades that do this work because they have no choice, to those who don't wake up everyday in a position of privilege, to those who have taken us in and who trust us to have their backs and be representatives of not only our shared networks, but the entire movement.

In this communique we will also offer evidence to disprove claims made by Nashville AntiFa, in conjunction with Great Lakes AntiFa (and others) against members of ARA. We perceive these claims to be malicious and know them to be unfounded and fraudulent, so we believe these claims are worthy of addressing.

While we understand that the perception of unity within anti-fascist street organizing is not something we should be openly discrediting, in all honesty and fairness it is not something that always exists at all times in all places. The consequences of appearing disunited to the state and the racist/fascist right are in our opinion not just cause to let fakeness go unchecked within our circles, and allow liars to deceive groups and individuals for personal gain. It is our goal to be fair and factual. Something that, as will be demonstrated in this communique, has not been afforded to us in regards of accurate depiction of events and circumstances.

Prior to the writing and publication of this communique, there were three separate pieces of information released, one each by the ARA Network¹, Cleveland Anti-fascists², and Solidarity and Defense³. Since the release of those documents there have been multiple attempts by members of Nashville and Great Lakes AntiFa to retaliate, going so far as to threaten to call Child Protective Services on other antifascists if statements were not recanted, and the dispersal of incorrect and fraudulent information about members of Nashville ARA in response.

This communique will be a gauge by which individuals and groups/networks may form their own opinion on the information (or misinformation) that has been circulating, within and outside of these documents. As you read further and process the information you need only ask yourself who and what you are doing this work for. Attached here is a full and unedited copy of the statement that we received on October 7th, 2017. Page by page which we will break down and attach relevant pieces of information. In this statement they attempt to smear and discredit the character and motivations of members of ARA, and even go so far as to falsely describe screenshots of what they wish to portray as evidence, but they make the mistake of thinking we don't keep records when the people and circumstances involved are clear signs of foul play.

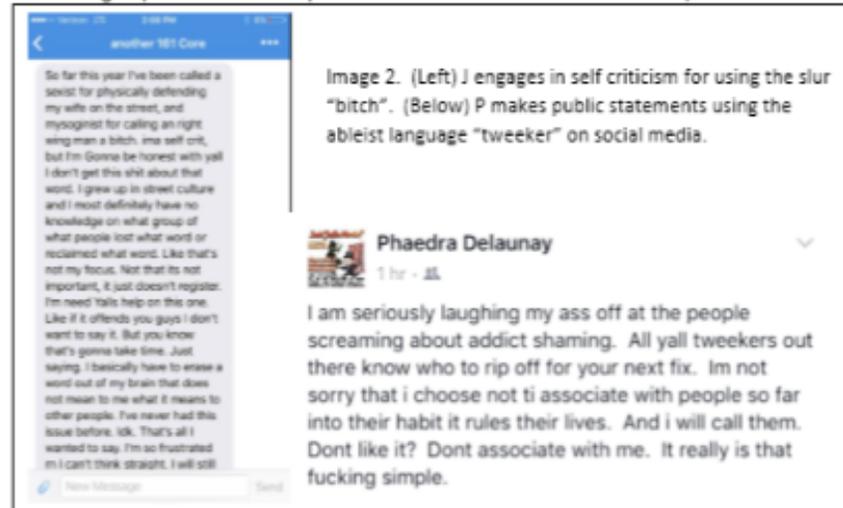

The cost of snitchjacketing: a case study

By Nashville AntiFa

The following is an account from the perspective of members of Nashville Antifascist Action (Nashville AntiFa) and includes sensitive information. Most of the information has been redacted to protect the safety of those involved, but this manuscript serves as a case study in toxic "security culture" and the drastic effects it can wreak in leftist activism circles. Wherever possible, images, text or screenshots are provided as reference points in the account. This is our story:

Our affinity group became active shortly after the election of Donald Trump. Many of our founding members are staunch opponents of the industrial carceral complex, and the bulk of our work has focused on prisoner support, obfuscating police power, mutual aid, resisting video visitation, prisoner advocacy, and prison abolition tactics. In the earliest organizing days, a married couple, whom we will refer to as Julez ([redacted]) and Phaedra ([redacted]) (or J and P) joined our group with an expressed desire to combat encroaching fascism and white supremacy. Although the two had a history of filing protective orders against each other (See Image 1), and we were not keen on folks who are comfortable with using the state against enemies or family, they seemed to be committed to the cause. But almost immediately, the two had friction within the group. A schism developed between the two and another member, who was also a founding member of Food oppose purity spirals and/or purity culture, so we attempted to do pull-ins and self-critical introspection with them to educate, not shun or use punitive measures. Although P refused to stop using ableist language about addiction, J seemed to be progressing and attempting to ameliorate his use of slurs, something we found encouraging.

Not Bombs Nashville, and the FNB person subsequently left our affinity group.

Not Bombs Nashville, and the FNB person subsequently left our affinity group.

Shortly thereafter, J and P began to exhibit some problematic behavior, including using slurs (such as "bitch") or ableist language (such as calling folks with substance abuse issues "tweeekers") (See Image 2).

However, we fiercely

Lets start from the top of page 1(see above image). Lets talk about what is accurate here and give a bit more backstory. It is in fact an account from the perspective of members of Nashville AntiFa. The notion that this is a case study in “toxic security culture” is laughable. It is a lesson in how not to put together a smear piece. It is true that members named here (Julez and Phaedra) were members of Nashville AntiFa prior to parting ways and joining the ARA Network. The AG did in fact become active around the time of the election of Donald Trump. The words used to describe the ideology of the AG are also correct. Then it goes on to state that “ In the earliest organizing days, a married couple, whom we will refer to as Julez () and Phaedra () (or J and P) joined our group with an expressed desire to combat encroaching fascism and white supremacy. Although the two had a history of filing protective orders against each other (See Image 1), and we were not keen on folks who are comfortable with using the state against enemies or family, they seemed to be committed to the cause. But almost immediately, the two had friction within the group. A schism developed between the two and another member, who was also a founding member of Food Not Bombs Nashville, and the FNB person subsequently left our affinity group.”

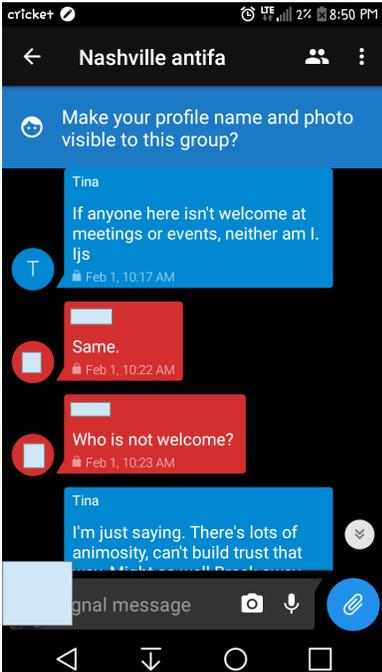

Whether or not you agree with the fact that they referenced the court records of a divorce proceeding to use as evidence of willingness to use the state, the fact is that they got it wrong. It is not only distasteful to release court mandated no-contact orders in sensitive family matters, ignoring the ways that they so often interplay with issues of mental illness and inability to seek and receive adequate treatment, its entirely unconnected to any picture they are trying to paint here and it misrepresents when this information was available to them. When the AG was initially formed, not a single person in the AG was doing any sort of doxxing or background searches on individuals joining the AG until after the involvement of one Jennifer Gaddy much after J and P initially joined the AG. More on her later.

We believe that the only reason this information was included was in retaliation for the ARA statement¹, which was endorsed by not only every chapter in ARA but several regional and national networks, some of which went on to release their own statements corroborating ours^{2 3}.

Next, they state that “ almost immediately, the two had friction within the group. A schism developed between the two and another member, who was also a founding member of Food Not Bombs Nashville, and the FNB person subsequently left our affinity group.”

Lets get right to the bottom of this one and provide some screenshots of our own for context. “Another member” references one Eva Watler, who was the lead coordinator and founding (and well known with a frequent media presence) member of FNB Nashville. J met Eva before anyone else in this AG, and was volunteering on a weekly basis to help prepare and deliver food for FNB. At some point, Eva took on the assumption that there was a “mutual attraction” between her and Julez and stated that it was “obvious to everyone” to at least two people in the AG. This was not communicated to J by Eva, and he was not made aware of this until after the “schism” had already come to a head. As time progressed, Eva began working with other members of the AG including P, who is J's partner, and repeatedly made reference to feeling “awkward” working with both J and P at once. Soon after, Eva invited P to stay with her for about a week and P agreed to pay Eva in exchange. During this stay Eva spread many lies about AG members both to P and about her to others. This led every single member except one to vote to not work with Eva any longer. These accounts from a member named Tina, and Ross corroborate this version told by J and P. Screenshots below.

Julez (in red), Phaedra (dark grey), Eva Watler (light grey with "#"), Tina (blue)

-

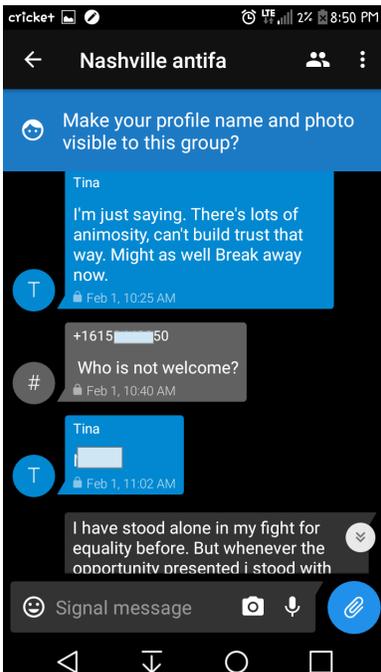

1. Nashville antifa

Make your profile name and photo visible to this group?

Tina
If anyone here isn't welcome at meetings or events, neither am I. ljs
Feb 1, 10:17 AM

Julez
Same.
Feb 1, 10:22 AM

Julez
Who is not welcome?
Feb 1, 10:23 AM

Tina
I'm just saying. There's lots of animosity, can't build trust that
-

2. Nashville antifa

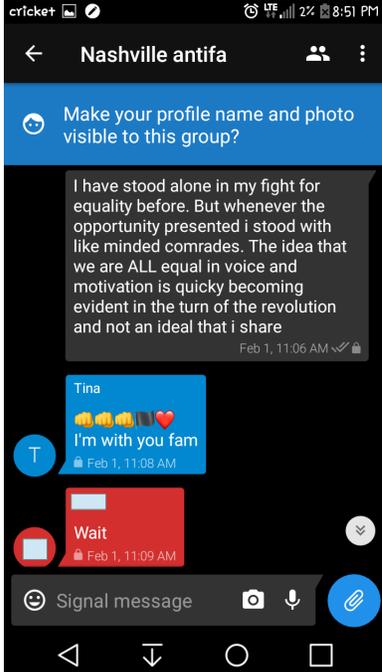

Make your profile name and photo visible to this group?

Tina
I'm just saying. There's lots of animosity, can't build trust that way. Might as well Break away now.
Feb 1, 10:25 AM

+1615-50

Who is not welcome?
Feb 1, 10:40 AM

Tina
Feb 1, 11:02 AM

I have stood alone in my fight for equality before. But whenever the opportunity presented i stood with
-

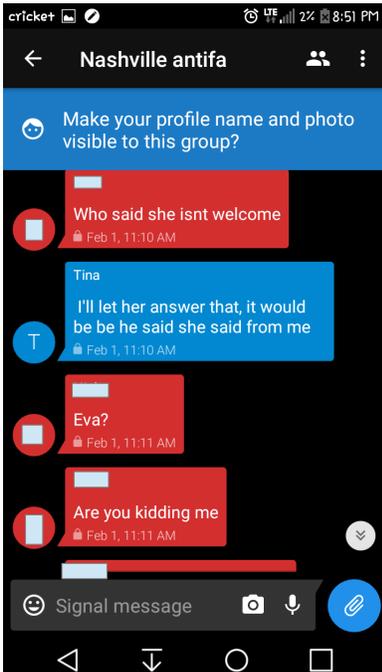

3. Nashville antifa

Make your profile name and photo visible to this group?

I have stood alone in my fight for equality before. But whenever the opportunity presented i stood with like minded comrades. The idea that we are ALL equal in voice and motivation is quickly becoming evident in the turn of the revolution and not an ideal that i share
Feb 1, 11:06 AM

Tina
Feb 1, 11:08 AM

Julez
I'm with you fam
Feb 1, 11:08 AM

Wait
Feb 1, 11:09 AM
-

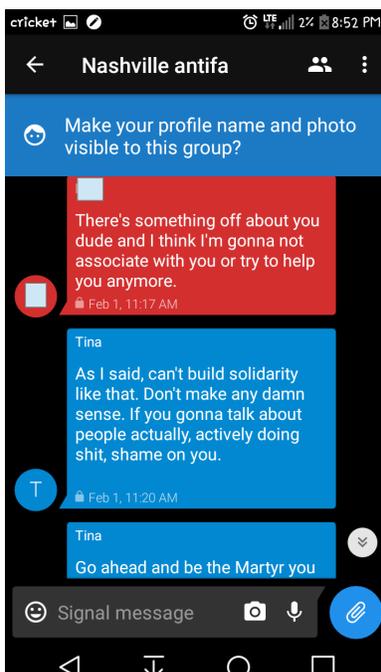

4. Nashville antifa

Make your profile name and photo visible to this group?

Julez
Who said she isnt welcome
Feb 1, 11:10 AM

Tina
I'll let her answer that, it would be he said she said from me
Feb 1, 11:10 AM

Eva?
Feb 1, 11:11 AM

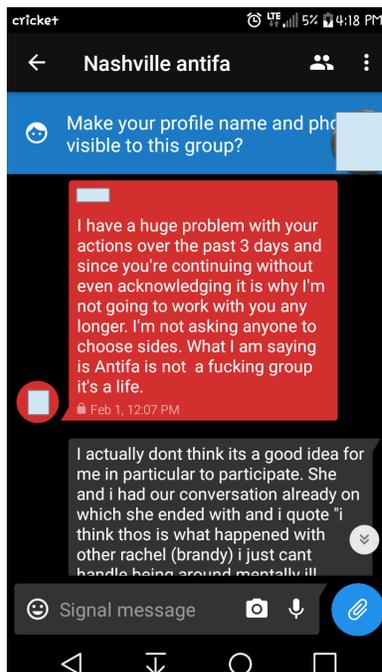

Julez
Are you kidding me
Feb 1, 11:11 AM
-

5. Nashville antifa

Make your profile name and photo visible to this group?

Julez
There's something off about you dude and I think I'm gonna not associate with you or try to help you anymore.
Feb 1, 11:17 AM

Tina
As I said, can't build solidarity like that. Don't make any damn sense. If you gonna talk about people actually, actively doing shit, shame on you.
Feb 1, 11:20 AM

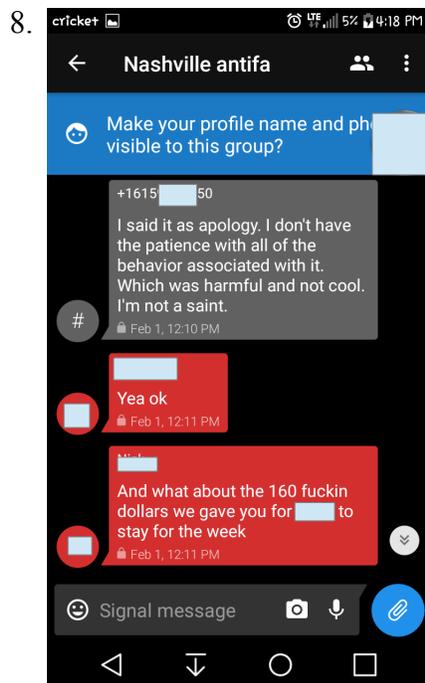

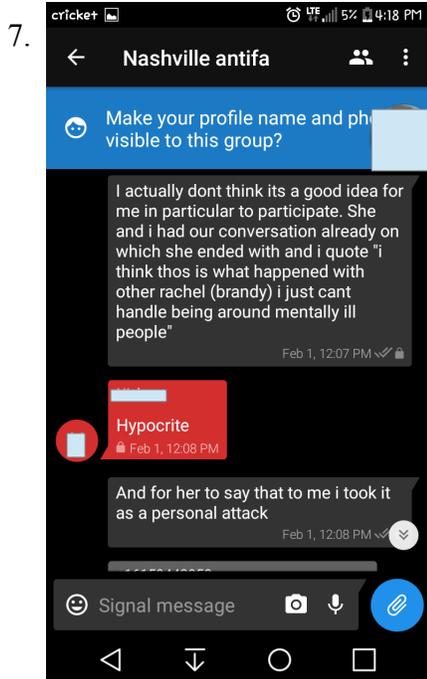

Tina
Go ahead and be the Martyr you
-

6. Nashville antifa

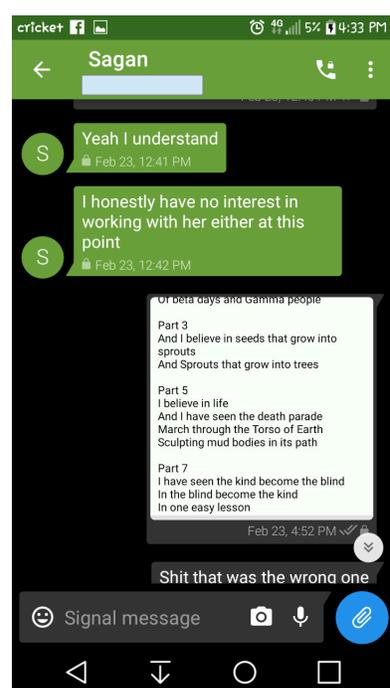

Make your profile name and photo visible to this group?

Julez
I have a huge problem with your actions over the past 3 days and since you're continuing without even acknowledging it is why I'm not going to work with you any longer. I'm not asking anyone to choose sides. What I am saying is Antifa is not a fucking group it's a life.
Feb 1, 12:07 PM

I actually dont think its a good idea for me in particular to participate. She and i had our conversation already on which she ended with and i quote i think thos is what happened with other rachel (brandy) i just cant handle being around mentally ill

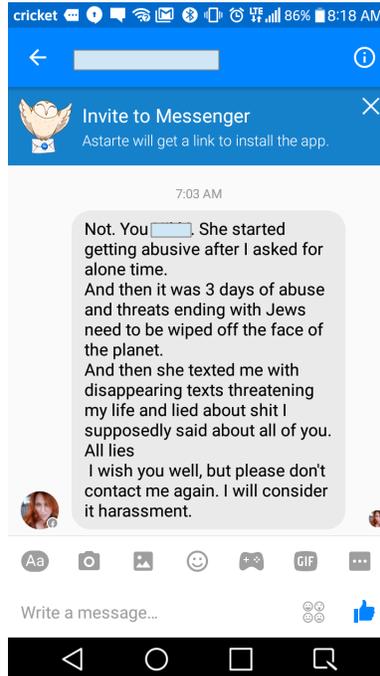

Next is a follow-up private message between Ross (“Sagan” in green) and Phaedra.

Some of the things that Eva told to various members of the AG to attempt to create divisions were:
That Julez was sexist for fighting along side Phaedra at an action where her safety was threatened.
That Phaedra told her that “All Jews need to be wiped off the planet”
That Phaedra sent her an antisemitic text message and threatened her life via signal
That both Tina and Phaedra were lying when they confronted her about the lies she had told.

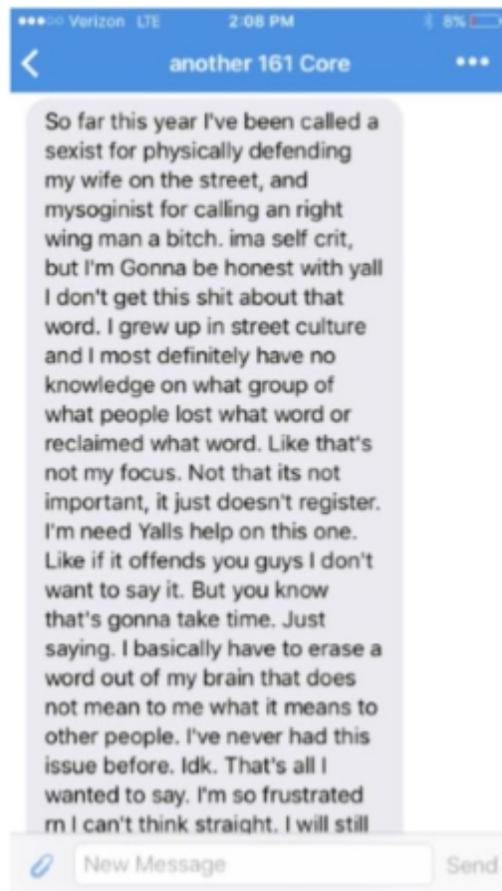

After the AG voted to stop working with Eva, Julez sent her a message to ask her why she had taken it that far and this was her response:

After this transmission Eva blocked Julez from messaging and no further contact was made.

Next it states that “Shortly thereafter, J and P began to exhibit some problematic behavior, including using slurs (such as “bitch”) or ableist language (such as calling folks with substance abuse issues “tweakers”) (See Image 2). However, we fiercely oppose purity spirals and/or purity culture, so we attempted to do pull-ins and self-critical introspection with them to educate, not shun or use punitive measures. Although P refused to stop using ableist language about addiction, J seemed to be progressing and attempting to ameliorate his use of slurs, something we found encouraging.” and attaches images without context or full reporting.

This accusation is factual. Julez made a post on the Facebook page for Nashville AntiFa which showed a screenshot of an alt-right member threatening antifascists, in which Julez captioned it with a paragraph that used the word “bitch”. There were people who spoke up in the comment section expressing disapproval of the use of that word, to which Julez response was to discuss it within the group chat of the AG, asking them to give advice and opinions on the matter. The discussion was mature and a consensus was reached that while the group understood the context of the post, that it was still a gender slur and Julez agreed to some self crit and made a signed public post in which he made an apology and recognition of the impact that the word can have and he has since made a successful effort to not use the word. It was appreciated and accepted by readers and by the AG as progress and as evidence of Julez holding himself accountable. It was no longer an issue after that point. However, the AG chose to not include any of that information in their statement, only a screenshot of the initial conversation that Julez started about it in a private thread. (See below)

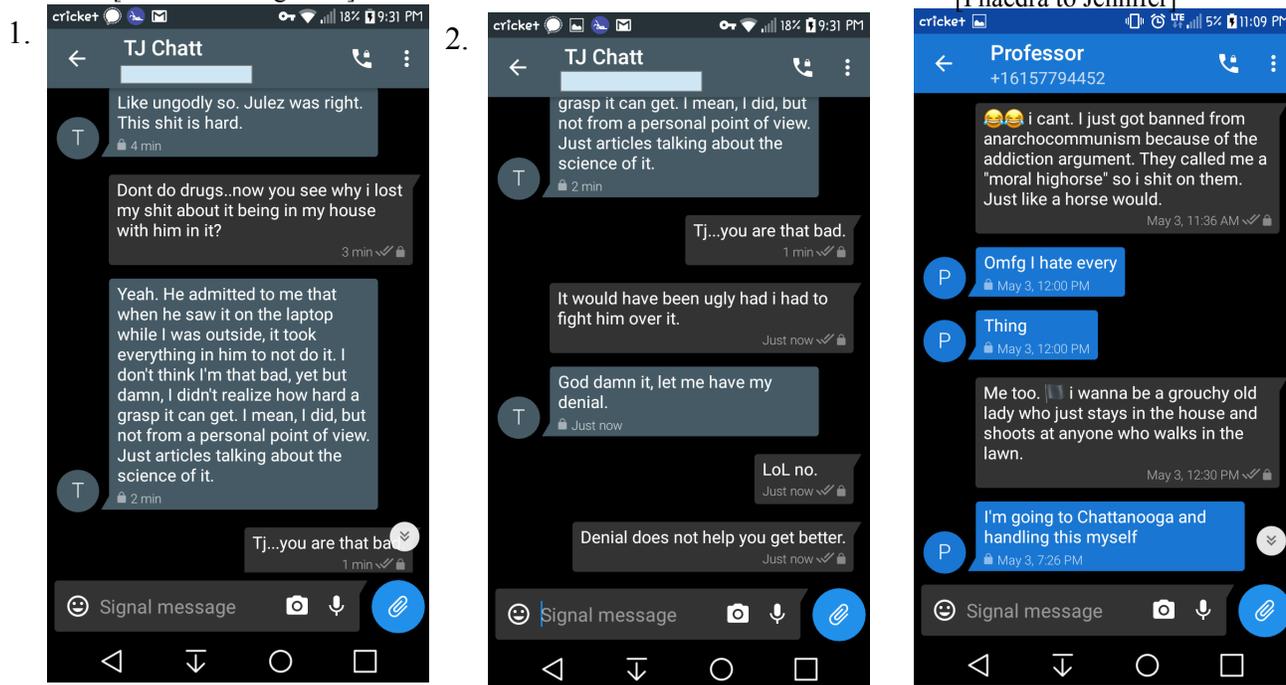

At this time, J was new to spaces that are conscious about gendered/sexist/ableist language, and in the interest of restorative justice a close comrade explained. This is why call out culture is important, and why people who care and are willing to educate and build up and promote radical feminism are essential. If the authors of the statement we are writing in response to actually care so much about avoiding “purity culture” is unclear why they found this relevant to include, especially when they admit themselves that the accountability process went positively.

Moving on to the screenshot of Phaedra and the tweeker reference. This is a complex issue but can be explained in a couple simple ways. There is a person by the name of TJ (who is mentioned later in their statement), who had been organizing with the AG at that time who was a meth user. This was known and was not something they shamed or ridiculed him for, but it was requested of him on several occasions to not bring it into their house or around their children due to Julez being a recovering addict and clean for over 8 years. Phaedra and Julez have a zero tolerance policy for the use of methamphetamine within their household specifically because of these addiction issues in Julez' past.

During a 3 day visit to their residence TJ was caught with meth in their house. He still wasn't shamed or made to leave or get rid of the dope, instead was offered counsel and help if he wanted. Relevant screenshots below. This was the first of two occasions when TJ was first asked to not bring it around that space, and to not bring it to particular actions. This direct and repeated breach of trust is also omitted in the given account. What else is omitted is that other members of the AG seemed to feel very differently about both Phaedra and the person suffering from addiction at the time than they claim to in their statement (See below screenshot of conversation with Jennifer Gaddy [Professor])

[Phaedra talking to TJ]

[Phaedra to Jennifer]

The referenced screenshot of Phaedra's Facebook post also came after another post she made about the drug that was deemed problematic in the group, but this had since been addressed much like Julez' language use, and the issue dissolved and no one had an issue with Julez and Phaedra maintaining a hardline stance of zero tolerance for that particular drug.

Lets move on to page 2 of their statement (image below)

We began planning several projects for the Spring, including planting a garden and building a digital space to store training documents. Additionally, our group began planning for the Traditional Worker's Party rally in Pikeville, Kentucky. Many of us were concerned with the potential for violence in the wake of the I.W.W./G.D.C. member, Hex, being shot at University of Washington protest. Our collective purchased two sets of plate carriers (body armor) and an additional set was donated to be worn as preventive measures against armed nationalists for defensive purposes. However, another schism had developed in the group: we had a large proportion of our collective who was committed to the cause of prisoner support/prison abolition/police abolition and a minority (including J and P) who were much more devoted to traveling to disrupt white nationalist rallies. Although the former group was supportive of J and P's enthusiasm and devotion, we were not keen to make it our sole focus. This created more division where J began accusing us of not being "anarchists" but being "liberals" for wanting to do more prisoner support work (something we felt very critical to our organizing) (See Image 3).

Image 3. (Above) J makes public posts telling us to stop identifying as anarchists or antifascists because he perceives our tactics to be akin to those employed by liberals.

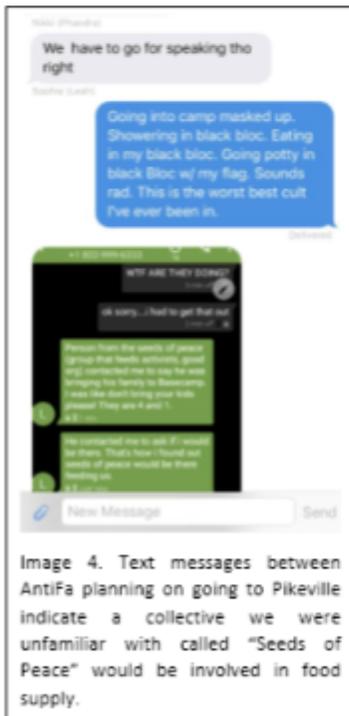

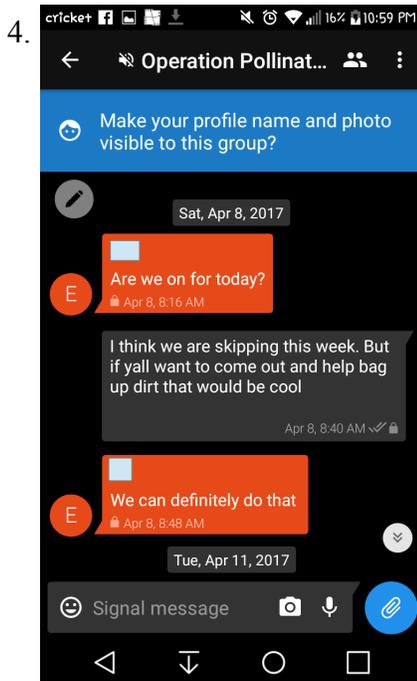

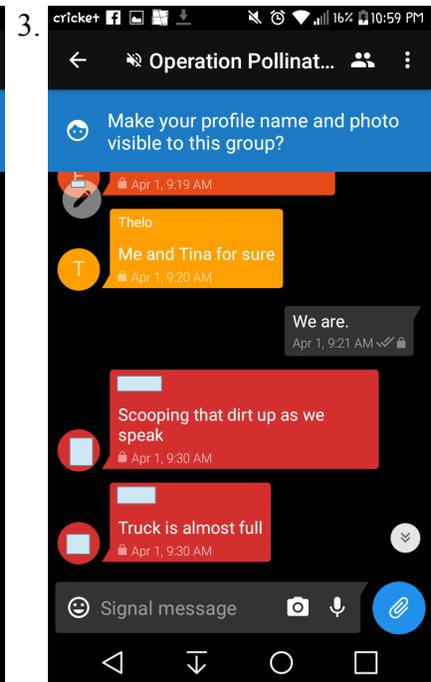

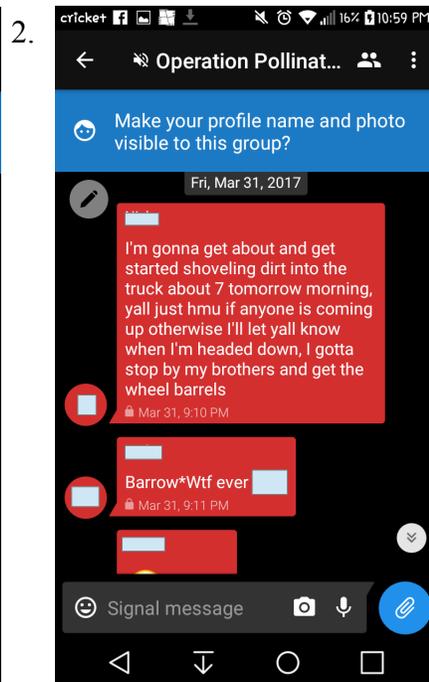

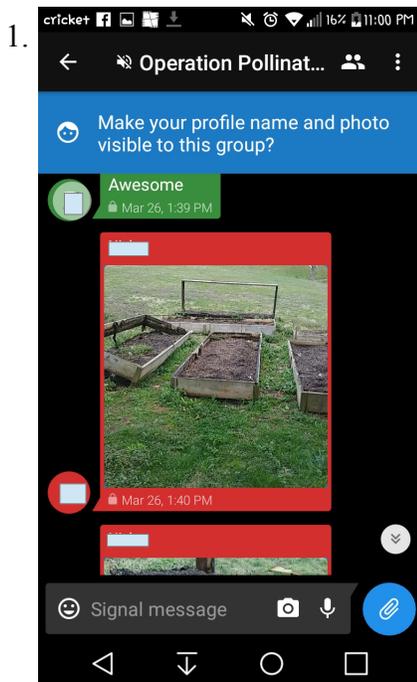

Image 4. Text messages between AntiFa planning on going to Pikeville indicate a collective we were unfamiliar with called "Seeds of Peace" would be involved in food supply.

As the organizing for Pikeville ramped up, several things happened in succession which caused the division to split further. Louisville ARA was spearheading organizing the event, and it seemed like the planning was gripped with fear and paranoia of right infiltration. As we prepared to travel to the event, we communicated with comrades in Great Lakes AntiFa because one of our members had a sibling who was affiliated with their organization. They were communicating with Cleveland ARA/AntiFa to see if they wanted to go to Pikeville too. The Great Lakes AntiFa collective affiliate had offered to rent a van for the ARA folks to aid in travel if necessary. We all had plans to camp at campsites and the admission to those campsites was supposed to be controlled by Louisville ARA. However, one of our members received a text message that un-vetted folks from another collective might be coming to provide food services for us. When asking how we would handle having unvetted folks from this collective being on site, we were encouraged to mask at the campsite, something that seemed suboptimal to us from an organizing standpoint (after all, what was the point of having all of us "vetted" if unvetted folks were going to be allowed on site as well (See Image 4). This is where, in retrospect, mistakes were made. Our member communicated in a group chat to members of Great Lakes AntiFa that the campsites would have unvetted folks in them, and that in light of this, perhaps instead of camping, we should get a block of hotel rooms in a nearby town to protect our anonymity. Great Lakes AntiFa, wanting to ensure the security of their Cleveland ARA/AntiFa comrades, communicated this to them. Cleveland ARA contacted Louisville ARA and asked if the campsites were going to have unvetted folks on site, and Louisville immediately became upset at Nashville and Great Lakes AntiFa for this perceived slight at their efforts to promote security. They asked Cleveland ARA to divulge who told them that the

Reading the first paragraph of the page, there is some truth and some falsification. Lets start with the garden : The screenshots below are a conversation during the beginning stage of the community garden called "Operation Pollination"

[Julez (red), Phaedra (Grey), Thelo (Yellow)]

We see no relevance here to mention the garden except for the fact that the way it is written suggest that J and P wanted nothing to do with community work and only to do actions. This is far from the case. In fact, while the labor of that first community garden was shared pretty evenly among most of the group, it was a project that J and P were excited about and did a majority of the initial labor to prepare the site and transport the soil.

I'm not going to really go any further into this but I want to point out the picture they are trying to paint here. From FNB, to OpPollination to OpLove to prisoner letter writing, J and P were involved as much as was physically possible.

Next it states that “ Our collective purchased two sets of plate carriers (body armor) and an additional set was donated to be worn as preventive measures against armed nationalists for defensive purposes.” This is inaccurate. Jennifer Gaddy and her sister purchased the body armor.

Next it states that “ However, another schism had developed in the group: we had a large proportion of our collective who was committed to the cause of prisoner support/prison abolition/police abolition and a minority (including J and P) who were much more devoted to traveling to disrupt white nationalist rallies. Although the former group was supportive of J and P’s enthusiasm and devotion, we were not keen to make it our sole focus. This created more division where J began accusing us of not being “anarchists” but being “liberals” for wanting to do more prisoner support work (something we felt very critical to our organizing) (See Image 3 [below])”

Image 3. (Above) J makes public posts telling us to stop identifying as anarchists or antifascists because he perceives our tactics to be akin to those employed by liberals.

. At no point whatsoever did J or P ever express the opinion that direct action was any more or less valuable than prison abolition work or any form of community work. In fact the discussion never came up. They made this up. While it is true that J and P were more focused on being devoted to attending as many defense actions as possible, it was never said that it was to be their main focus or suggested that the AG should make it their main focus. To say that J and P accused them of not being anarchists and being liberals for wanting to do prison work more than actions is ludicrous and false.

What is true, is that J and P HIGHLY disagreed with the growing consensus among other members of the group to make efforts to appeal to liberals locally and regionally. They made it clear that they did not agree with and will not participate in the liberalization of Anti-fascist organizing. Furthermore, the date on Julez' post, which they neglected to include was May 23rd, 2017 . Julez and Phaedra had already left Nashville AntiFa and joined the ARA Network, forming the Nashville chapter. This fact, of course, derails their narrative.

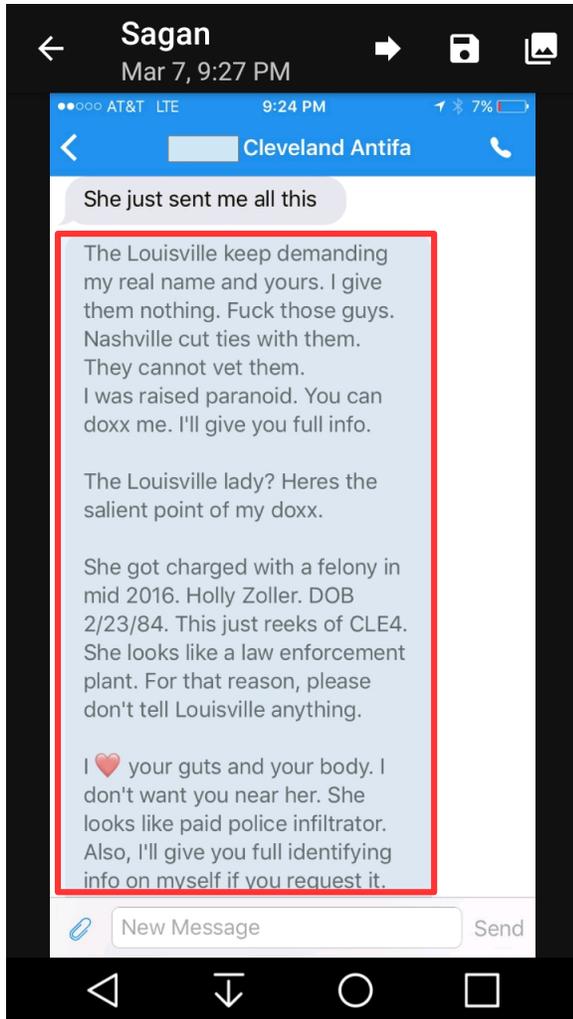

The last paragraph on page 2 is where it really becomes apparent of their use of misinformation. It states that “As the organizing for Pikeville ramped up, several things happened in succession which caused the division to split further. Louisville ARA was spearheading organizing the event, and it seemed like the planning was gripped with fear and paranoia of right infiltration. As we prepared to travel to the event, we communicated with comrades in Great Lakes AntiFa because one of our members had a sibling who was affiliated with their organization. They were communicating with Cleveland ARA/AntiFa to see if they wanted to go to Pikeville too. The Great Lakes AntiFa collective affiliate had offered to rent a van for the ARA folks to aid in travel if necessary. We all had plans to camp at campsites and the admission to those campsites was supposed to be controlled by Louisville ARA. However, one of our members received a text message that un-vetted folks from another collective might be coming to provide food services for us. When asking how we would handle having unvetted folks from this collective being on site, we were encouraged to mask at the campsite, something that seemed sub-optimal to us from an organizing standpoint (after all, what was the point of having all of us “vetted” if unvetted folks were going to be allowed on site as well (See Image 4). This is where, in retrospect, mistakes were made. Our member communicated in a group chat to members of Great Lakes AntiFa that the campsites would have unvetted folks in them, and that in light of this, perhaps instead of camping, we should get a block of hotel rooms in a nearby town to protect our anonymity. Great Lakes AntiFa, wanting to ensure the security of their Cleveland ARA/AntiFa comrades, communicated this to them. Cleveland ARA contacted Louisville ARA and asked if the campsites were going to have unvetted folks on site, and Louisville immediately became upset at Nashville and Great Lakes AntiFa for this perceived slight at their efforts to promote security. They asked Cleveland ARA to divulge who told them that the campsites were not secure and a member of Cleveland ARA told Louisville ARA the legal name of the Great Lakes AntiFa affiliate (sibling to Nashville AntiFa member). At that point, the Great Lakes AntiFa affiliate felt that Cleveland ARA/AntiFa had compromised her anonymity and she deactivated her social media accounts and uninstalled Signal. She did not feel comfortable using a credit card to rent them a vehicle in light of this as well. The reason behind deactivation of social media by this person was communicated via messaging between Great Lakes and Cleveland. Understandably, feelings were hurt on all sides by this, and several people stayed home from Pikeville because of it.”

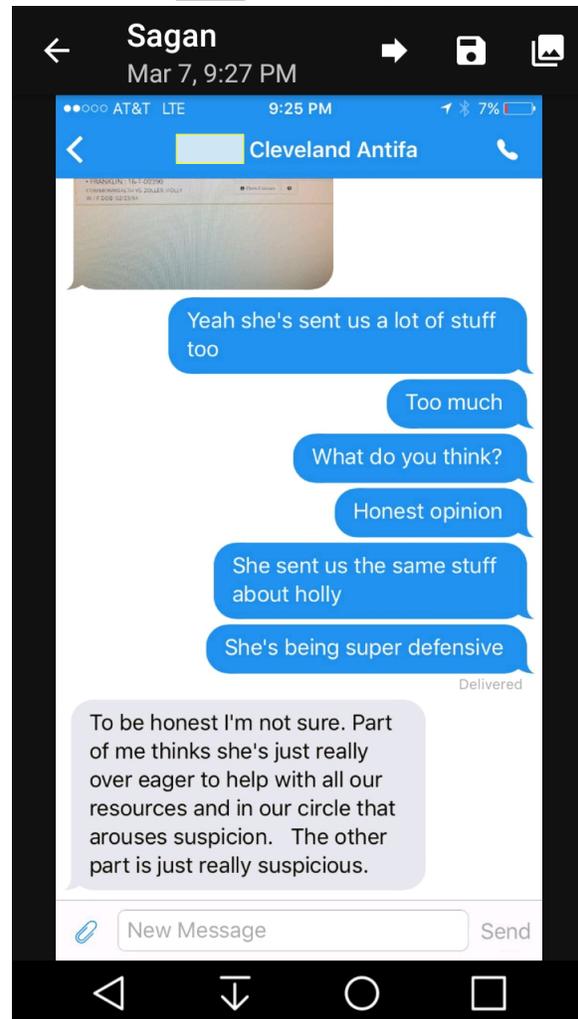

The following screenshots paint a much different picture. The next two images are screenshots that Ross sent to Phaedra, of a conversation between Ross and “[redacted]” of Cleveland Antifa.

[inside the highlighted red box is a c&p of a message from Jennifer to [redacted], sent to Ross]

1.

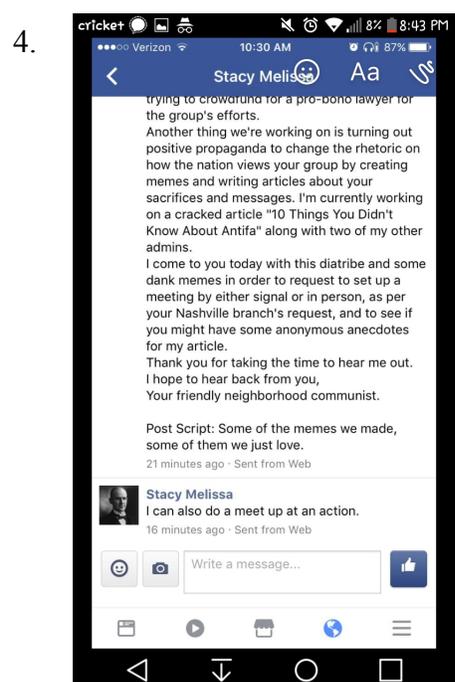

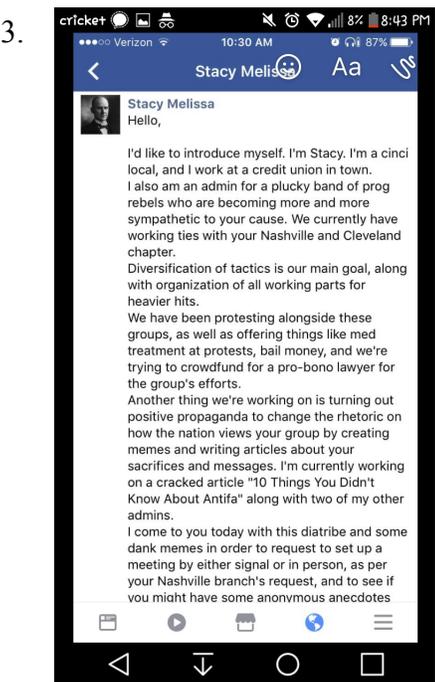

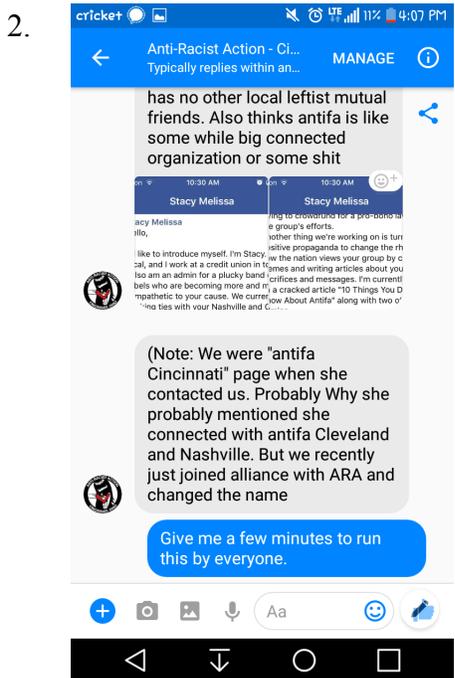

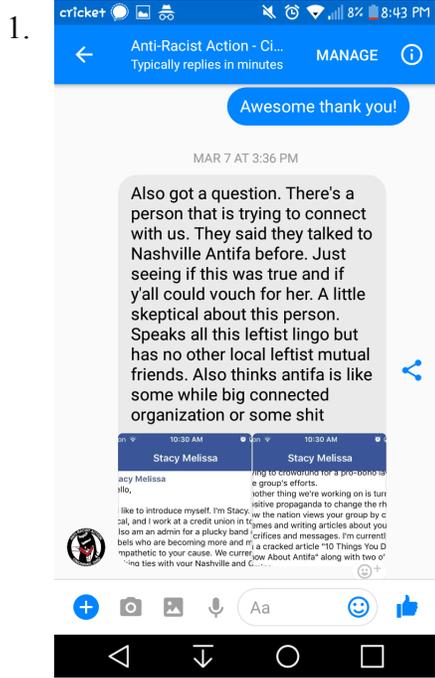

2.

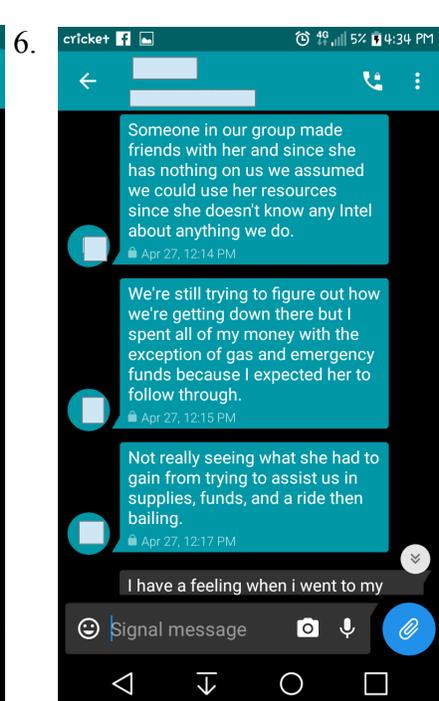

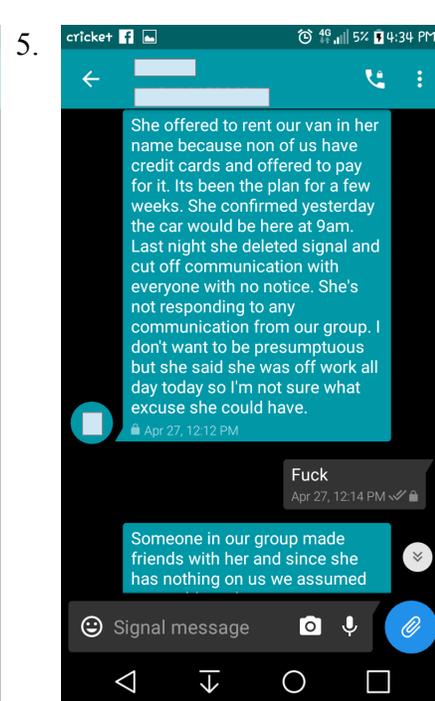

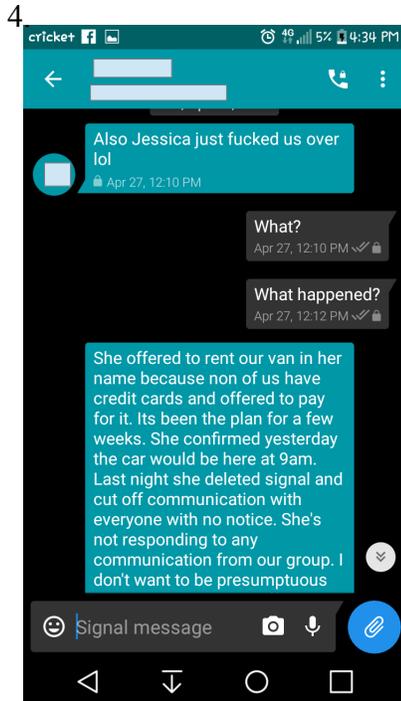

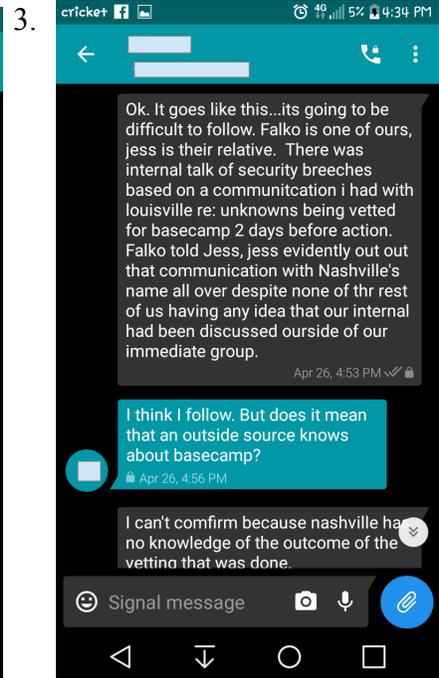

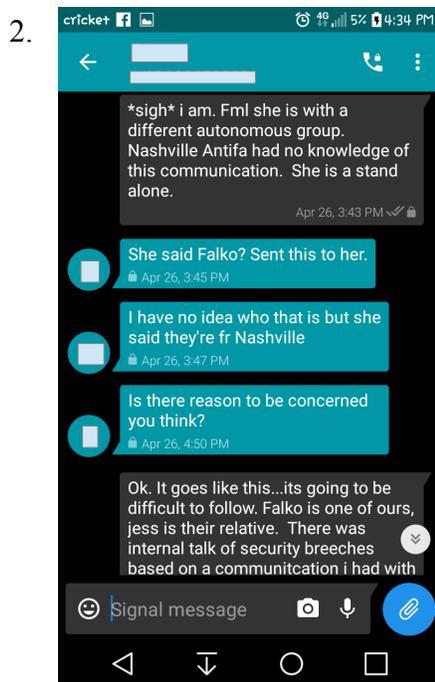

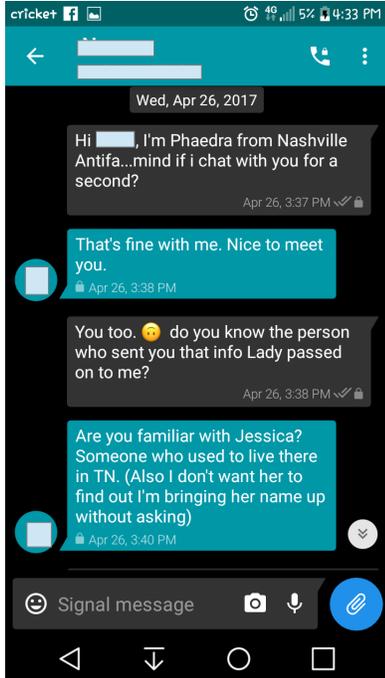

In this message, Jennifer Gaddy is again giving misinformation. Holly has never been convicted of a felony, and was never arrested in 2016. If Holly were in fact a law enforcement plant, that would mean she has been working with law enforcement for 15 years with no arrests made, no results. There are documented photographs of Holly doing anti-fascist work going back to 2002. Jennifer Gaddy has repeatedly used this tactic. Holly is a trusted, vetted and respected member in good standing of ARA.

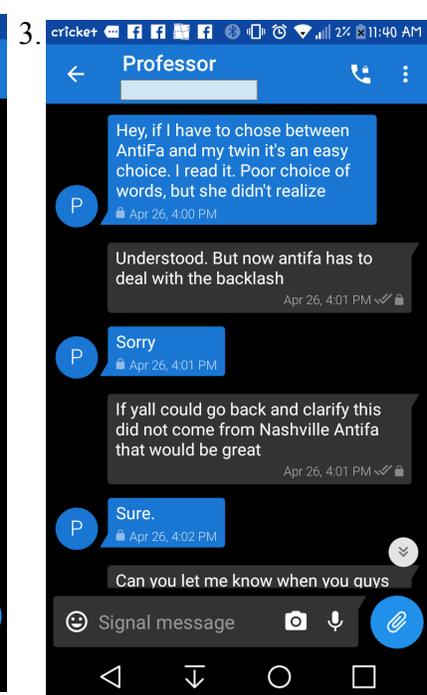

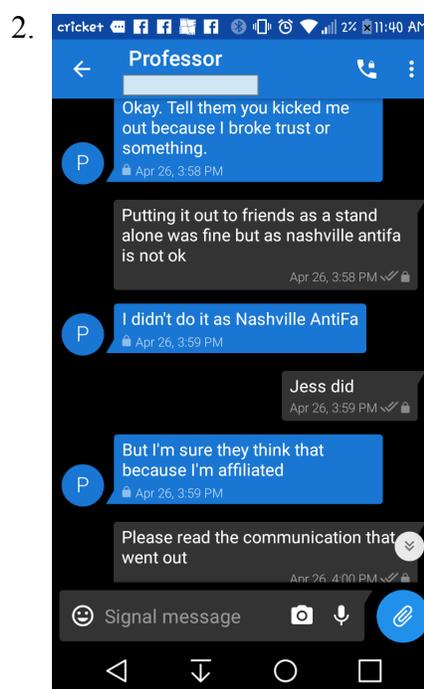

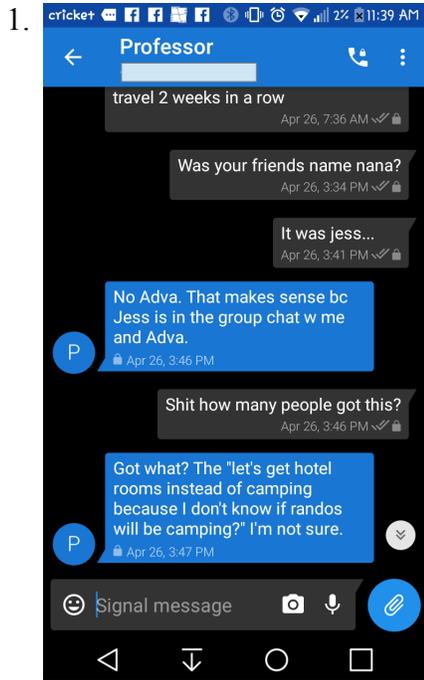

This next set of screenshots is from a conversation between Phaedra and Cincinatti ARA, and a conversation between Phaedra and a member of Cleveland Anti-fascists prior to the action in Pikeville, KY. For context, the contents of these conversations completely disprove and derail the narrative that Nashville Antifa attempts use in the last paragraph on page 2 of their statement, claiming that Julez and Phaedra damaged their relationship with Louisville ARA and Cleveland ARA by “forming dissent with transportation organizers”. (the bottom two screenshots on this page are the screenshots that were sent to Phaedra in this message. Stacy “Melissa” is Stacy Barnes, Jennifer Gaddy's other sister)

1. [Phaedra talking to [redacted] of Cleveland Anti-fascists about the transportation situation]

The next 3 images are screenshots of Phaedra asking Jennifer ("Professor") about the situation.

Because of this and several other issues leading up to Pikeville, Jennifer ended up doing the same thing as Jessica (as described above by [redacted]) and ghosted everyone by deleting signal and all social media and cutting off all communication.

Next.

At this point, we were hoping that the mess from Pikeville organizing could be put behind us, but we had more setbacks. Our collective was destabilized further because, at Pikeville someone from the ARA network alleged that an affiliate from our group, a 20-year old activist we will refer to as "T", was a Nazi infiltrator. T is a member of I.W.W. and is also a member of Chattanooga AntiFa, but he frequently does actions with our affinity group as well, so we consider him to be family. They claimed to have screenshot evidence that T was a Nazi infiltrator, but this was never presented to our collective. Instead J and P, without consensus from our group, lured T to a secondary location, and J beat him with impunity. I want to take a moment, reader, and try to articulate what impact that had on our collective. We had never drawn blood on a fascist up to this point, and one of the elder members of our group had just beaten a 20-year old activist for a perceived crime with no evidence. After the beating, we did not take T to a hospital, nor did we involve the police. Instead, we attempted to proctor victim-led restorative justice between T and J and P. T does not have much family, and he feels like AntiFa is one of the only families he has, so he requested that we try to move on and put our family back together. As such, we attempted to honor his wishes, but moved forward with the hope that J and P would stop hurting folks in our collective. At no point did Louisville or the ARA network engage us to attempt to help us with this situation. And we have still never been given these screenshots to date. However, T remains a committed activist. T would later go on to be arrested in Charlottesville defending the city against fascist invaders.

Image 6. A picture of T in the days after J beat him up.

Here we have once again TJ. And once again we have the author writing false statements. J and P did personally see the screenshots. There was no solid accusation made against TJ that he was a nazi infiltrator. TJ actually told someone that he was an alt-right troll. This statement also omits the fact that that in those same communications TJ also said that he had purchased a number of SKS rifles to bring to Pikeville and that he was going to cause a bloodbath. TJ also mentioned Louisville ARA by name which led the person he was contacting to contact Louisville ARA and tell them that he was going to call the FBI, which significantly escalated tensions leading up to the action.

There were 5 members of Nashville AntiFa present when we met with TJ the night of this incident, and any one of them that you ask will attest to the fact that there was a conversation about what he had done and the potential and real consequences of his actions. At first he lied about all of it and eventually, in front of 5 members of Nashville AntiFa and several members of another AG admitted and apologized.

As for the alleged beating, as is the common theme in this statement, this is not accurate. It is hard for me to believe that one of their members who was present during this incident would sign off on this knowing how badly and inaccurately this was written.

There was an agreement between TJ and members that we would settle it. TJ was not lured anywhere. At the end of the night he was offered help in beginning to recover from drug addiction and J talked with him for almost an hour about his experiences with addiction to the same drug in his past. The following day TJ along with all of Nashville AntiFa and Upstate ARA (then upstate AntiFa) marched downtown Nashville as a unified group and faced a large group of fascists who were protesting our May Day rally. We were 12 facing over 40 people. The authors account of these circumstances is completely false, and if you have a connection to Nashville AntiFa, give them a shout. Not a doubt they will confirm. TJ on multiple occasions lied to, about and behind the back of Nashville AntiFa and those who are now ARA. We have plenty more receipts but I don't feel like its necessary here.

Let's move onto page 4.

J and P would go on to make social media posts about why they beat T up (P's sock account is "Jackie Ward"). They justified his beating by indicating he was jeopardizing the Pikeville operation with online troll activity (See Image 7) that has never been substantiated or provided to our collective or the Chattanooga collective for mediation.

Subsequently, the division in our group continued to be difficult to manage. When a member has done violence to another member without mediation, without proof of transgression, the atmosphere in the group is bound to change. However, the actual split in our group between AntiFa and ARA came when one of our Nashville AntiFa spearheads simply asked P to stop being condescending to other members. This elicited rage from J who threatened to "shoot him in the head". At this point, we could not continue to organize with them since we had credible evidence they were capable of doing violence to other leftists. So, we split our groups off, and attempted to do so amicably. J and P formed a Nashville ARA chapter, and we even allowed them to keep one set of body armor and a VPN to start their own chapter, in a gesture of goodwill (to try and make things smooth for their transition out of our group). We never wanted community organizing to be difficult with them, but this has not been the case.

Since forming their own ARA chapter, J and P have continued to threaten, intimidate and badjacket Nashville AntiFa, Great Lakes AntiFa, and Chattanooga AntiFa members. They will not leave our social media pages alone, constantly posting in our threads telling folks to not trust us because we are "honeypots" (See Image 8) and specifically targeting the two siblings affiliated with Nashville AntiFa and Great Lakes AntiFa by posting cartoon depictions meant to parody them (they both have red hair, see Image 8). We ignored these childish displays, hoping they would tire of harassing us, but it continued and escalated. They have aggressively menaced our members at actions to a degree that is greater than they menace fascists. Eventually, they did a light-doxx on their page revealing the identities of two members of our collectives and badjacketing an entire collective without evidence, just citing "too many sources and incidents to cite"(See Image 9).

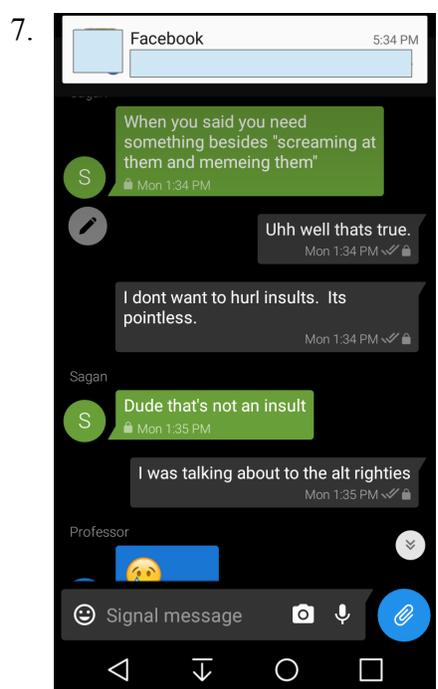

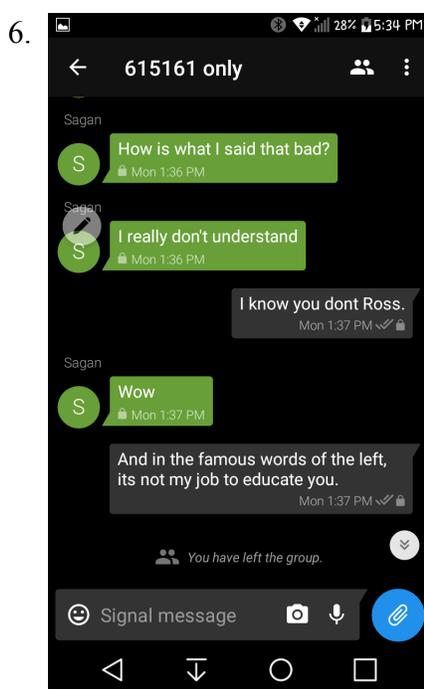

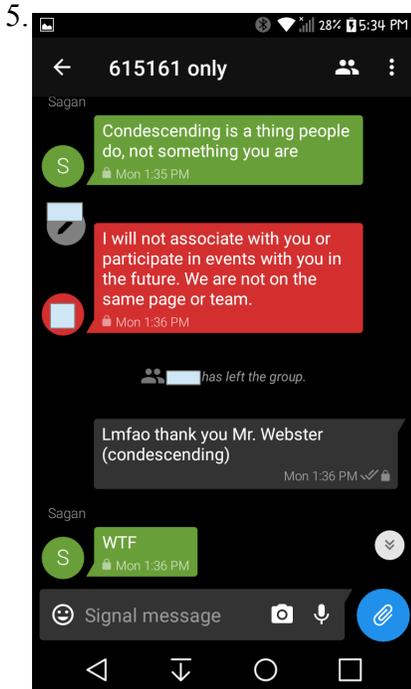

A look at their social media page will reveal that they have doxxed members of our collectives and their unaffiliated family members more assiduously than they have ever done against fascists. And for what? Because they have hurt feelings that we

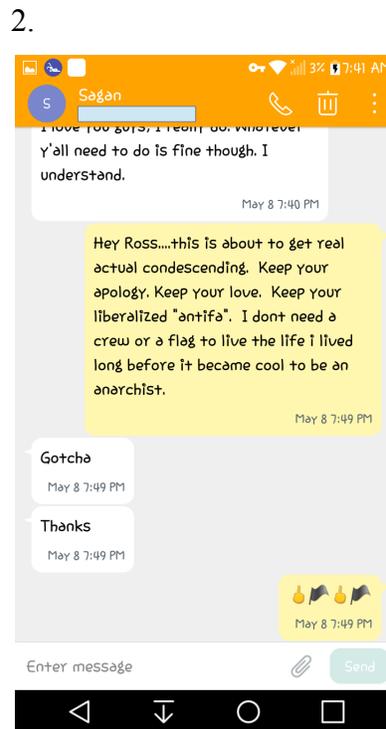

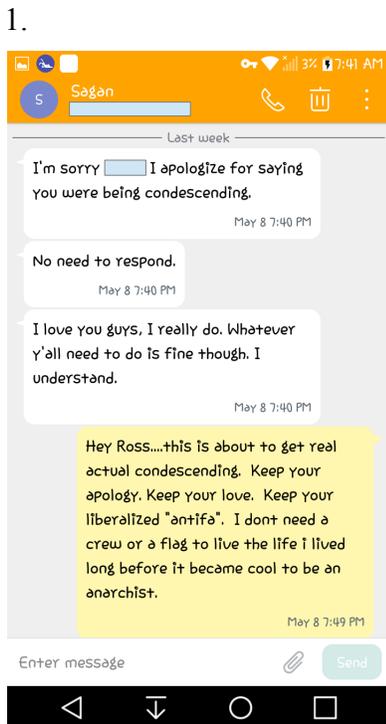

First, the statement attributes the account Jackie Ward to J in one sentence and to P in another, which calls in to question that they even know who to accuse.

Second, once again, the author of this statement does not take into consideration that there might be other people who still have the screenshots. The statement claims: "Subsequently, the division in our group continued to be difficult to manage. When a member has done violence to another member without mediation, without proof of transgression, the atmosphere in the group is bound to change. However, the actual split in our group between AntiFa and ARA came when one of our Nashville AntiFa spearheads simply asked P to stop being condescending to other members. This elicited rage from J who threatened to "shoot him in the head". At this point, we could not continue to organize with them since we had credible evidence they were capable of doing violence to other leftists." but here are the actual screenshots so you can see for yourself:

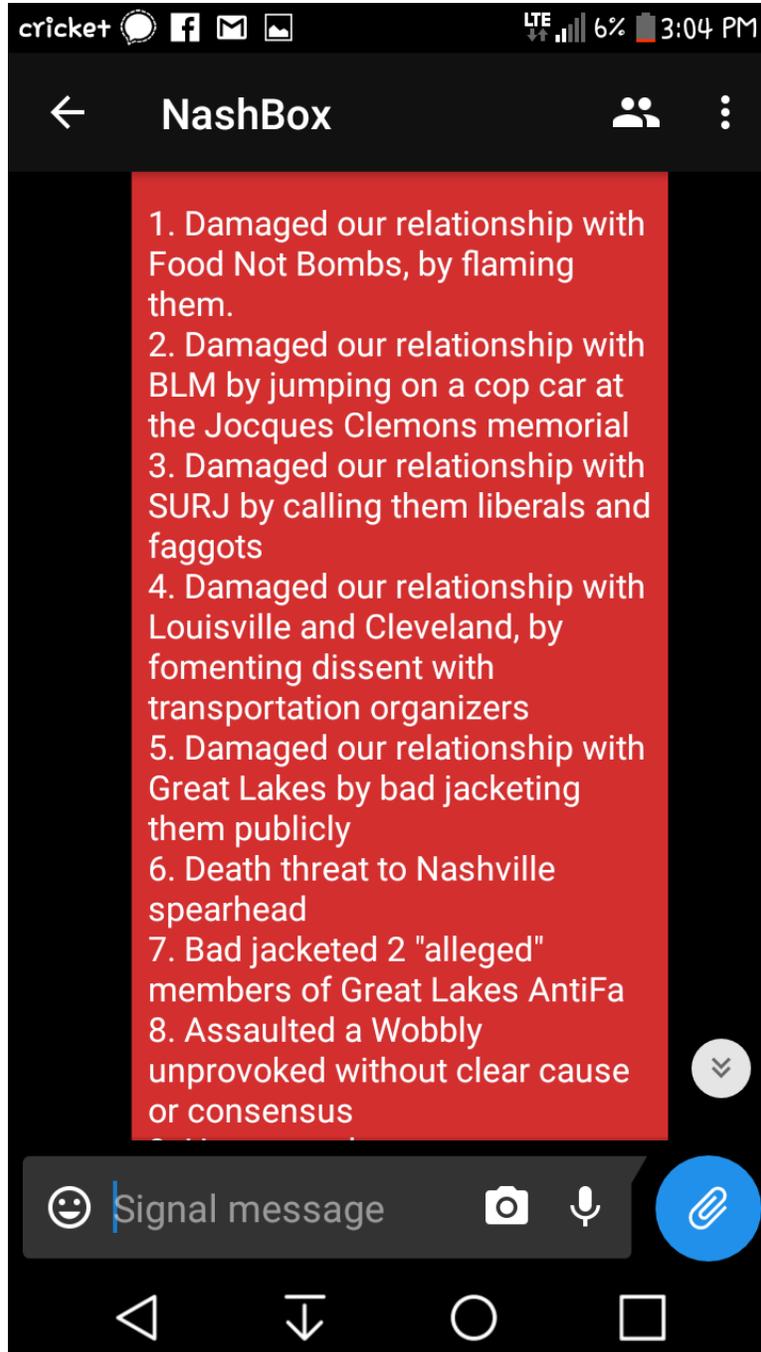

Below is the proceeding conversation between Ross and Phadra about the incident.

Nowhere does Julez become violent or threaten to shoot Ross in the head.

Ask them for that screenshot of J threatening to shoot Ross in the head. They don't have it. It doesn't exist. It didn't happen. Next. It states that Ross “simply asked P to stop being condescending to other members”. Clearly shown above, this is not an accurate description of dialogue. Next. It states that this was the reason for the split. This is not true. The reason for the split is in the screenshot below which we will explain.

We received a copy of this text that was sent into a group thread, that was created by Ross which included all members of Nashville AntiFa except for J and P for the sole purpose of discussing how and why they were going to kick them out.

Before we address the validity of those claims, I think it is worth saying that almost all Affinity Groups, orgs and networks we've worked with have an accountability process that is straight up, honest and to the point when dealing with members who find themselves out of good standing for whatever reason. Nashville AntiFa chose instead to communicate to J and P that though things were going rough nothing was wrong, while privately discussing how they were going to personally attack and distance themselves from the two in the easiest way possible so that they could appease liberal's demands on their group.

J received screenshots of these conversations from a newer person who had been starting to organize with them, stating to J that he felt like it was betrayal and was not good with what was going down and that he was being lied to. This was what ultimately led to the split.

Lets talk about this list in the above screenshot. A portion that is cropped out at the top of that text read "Here's what we know:" Jennifer Gaddy wrote that list, which is not simply misleading, but is often completely false.

1. We talked about that in the beginning with the circumstances surrounding Eva Watler.
2. This has become a running joke among conrads that Julez jumped on a cop car at a BLM rally for Jocques Clemmons. This allegation is completely fabricated. We can put you in touch with the family of Jocques Clemmons, they were all there at the rally, no one ever jumped on a cop car. In fact they went so far as to use a picture that was taken in another city at a different time of day than when the rally took place. Julez was there but according to all accounts except Ross and Jennifer, he did not jump on a cop car. Not that there's anything wrong with that.
3. Still not sure where this came from. J did not know and hadn't worked with any members of SURJ prior to this claim and certainly would not use that language to describe them. Although Liberal is not entirely inaccurate.
4. Again, in this communique we show contradicting evidence to this claim.
5. Its pretty much a nationally known fact now that Nashville AntiFa takes orders from Great Lakes so lets not pretend that's even a real thing.
6. This claim has no basis and the receipts show a different conversation than the one the author describes.
7. Great Lakes AntiFa is burned and not in good standing with our Networks, nor is any of their members or affiliates. We didn't bad jacket two of them, we bad jacketed them all.
8. Some people got in a fight. We're not in the business of incriminating anyone.
9. (not shown) says "Evidence that they used the state against eachother" which we went over before.

These accusations and lies against J and P were the first in a line of more to come from Nashville AntiFa and Great Lakes AntiFa for getting called out on their shit and refusing to be accountable.

Continuing page 4 it states “ So, we split our groups off, and attempted to do so amicably. J and P formed a Nashville ARA chapter, and we even allowed them to keep one set of body armor and a VPN to start their own chapter, in a gesture of goodwill (to try and make things smooth for their transition out of our group). We never wanted community organizing to be difficult with them, but this has not been the case.”

As you can perhaps assume from how the split between groups came to pass, there was no attempt to do anything amicably. There was no attempt at any sort of communication by them. This is important. They did not “allow us to keep” anything. There was no exchange of anything, we didn't ask for anything. We never received a VPN of any sort from any of them. As a matter of fact they later on accused us of stealing said VPN. Yes, we have a screenshot for that. There was no “transition” from their group. We left after the lies had begun to spread internally with the explicit and previously determined purpose of joining ARA.

Continuing page 4

It states that “Since forming their own ARA chapter, J and P have continued to threaten, intimidate and badjacket Nashville AntiFa, Great Lakes AntiFa, and Chattanooga AntiFa members. They will not leave our social media pages alone, constantly posting in our threads telling folks to not trust us because we are “honeypots” (See Image 8) and specifically targeting the two siblings affiliated with Nashville AntiFa and Great Lakes AntiFa by posting cartoon depictions meant to parody them (they both have red hair, see Image 8). We ignored these childish displays, hoping they would tire of harassing us, but it continued and escalated. They have aggressively menaced our members at actions to a degree that is greater than they menace fascists. Eventually, they did a light-doxx on their page revealing the identities of two members of our collectives and badjacketing an entire collective without evidence, just citing “too many sources and incidents to cite”(See Image 9).

This is one area where we as a chapter are taking accountability. Not because we regret anything that was said or feel that anything we said to their pages or accounts were untrue, but because we have a responsibility for the way our chapter reflects on the Network. Social media is not the proper place to hash out differences of this nature between anti-fascist, or so called anti-fascist organizations. Our purpose there should be to promote unity and non-sectarian defense. Even when we aren't given the same respect.

There are a few there who had not done any wrong towards us and whom we have no issue with. As for the members who we did a “light doxx” on, they were Jennifer Gaddy and Jessica Nocero (also referred to as “the twins”) of Great Lakes/Nashville AntiFa and we stand beside our statement on those individuals and their organizations. So when we said “too many sources and incidents to site”, well basically this is what we meant. By the end of this communique I'll be well into 30 pages of sources and incidents.

Continuing page 4 into page 5:

It states “A look at their social media page will reveal that they have doxxed members of our collectives and their unaffiliated family members more assiduously than they have ever done against fascists. And for what? Because they have hurt feelings that we were unwilling to continue organizing with them because they have done tangible harm and threatened harm to our members. At this point, we asked members in our local community to help sit down with mediation. A member of our collective asked ARA to intervene and reel them in, or provide a forum for mediation. No one was interested in getting involved. Great Lakes Spearheads contacted antifascist organizer Daryl Lamont Jenkins to ask for remediation between our groups around the time when we all came together for the AmRen conference as well through a mutual comrade, John Carico, and he indicated he was not interested in “getting involved with Leftist infighting”. We feel it is important to underscore this, because our community has a dearth of interest in helping with these types of problems until great harm comes to pass.”

We've already covered a great deal of this paragraph so, if you're really that interested, reach out to DLJ and see what he has to say about it. Next we'll break down the Carico situation and then the Emma Berger situation with screenshots. If you need more clarification on any of these points you'll have to reach out and ask for the rest. There's a lot.

Image 9. P posts a badjacket of Great Lakes AntiFa and exposes the identity of two antifascist organizers without evidence of their wrongdoing presented.

were unwilling to continue organizing with them because they have done tangible harm and threatened harm to our members. At this point, we asked members in our local community to help sit down with mediation. A member of our collective asked ARA to intervene and reel them in, or provide a forum for mediation. No one was interested in getting involved. Great Lakes Spearheads contacted antifascist organizer Daryl Lamont Jenkins to ask for remediation between our groups around the time when we all came together for the AmRen conference as well through a mutual comrade, John Carico, and he indicated he was not interested in “getting involved with Leftist infighting”. We feel it is important to underscore this, because our community has a dearth of interest in helping with these types of problems until great harm comes to pass.

Around this time, the affiliate of the Great Lakes AntiFa collective who had been revealed in Image 9 received a visit from a U. S. Marshal who identified himself as an agent of the Dept. of Homeland Security (see Image 10). He indicated he knew she was part of Great Lakes AntiFa and he aggressively threatened State oppression against her and her collective, using language indicating AFA was a terrorist organization. She had to invest in legal representation and that battle remains ongoing. We do not think that ARA members are Image 10. The card provided to the Great Lakes affiliate who received aggressive attention from the U.S. Marshals Service.

Fed infiltrators, that is not our allegation. We simply think they make the Feds jobs very easy as this agent came armed with printouts of social media pages including Facebook pages. Publicly doxxing folks like this, puts people at real risk for State oppression. IT IS THE REASON WE MASK AND USE SOC ACCOUNTS.

Shortly thereafter, T experienced another round of aggression from J and P. This caused the Tennessee I.W.W. to confront J with folks affiliated with that group complaining that J and P engage in Image 11. IWW affiliates complain about J and P's incessant Nazi jacketing.

“Incessant Nazi-jacketing” (See Image 11). After being ejected from TN- I.W.W., Phaedra and Jules continued to harass members of TN-I.W.W. online (See Image 12), sending them threatening messages and acting volatile (See Image 13). This continued to spiral the activist community into a tailspin in our state and promote paranoia and unrest.

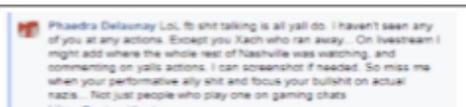

Image 12. P continues to harass TN-IWW members online.

Nashville AntiFa has no members involved in I.W.W., only affiliates such as T who still participate. We did not hear about Julez' ejection from I.W.W. until some time afterward, and by that time we were attempting to organize for the American Renaissance (AmRen) white nationalist conference in our state. Because we worried that J and P would be volatile if they saw the two members of our collective (Sagan and Falko) who they'd been aggressive against, both S and F elected to not attend AmRen to give J and P that lane, especially because we had been told that the ARA network would be sending several folks to support J and P against the nationalists. The math seemed easy to us, if two of ours stay home, maybe a couple dozen ARA would come out and support the antifascists protesting AmRen. Plus, we would be giving them more time to get over their hard feelings against our members. At AmRen, a vocal antifascist, John Carico, was arrested for defensively beating a nationalists. Our collective (specifically S and F) did court support for him. In the aftermath of this, we heard from our network that J and P were angry that we had done court support for Carico, and Carico told us they were menacing him online subsequently and threatening to disrupt his court hearing because of our support. This ludicrous behavior continues to go unchallenged.

After Charlottesville, several of our members attempted to reach out in the wake of the tragedy and heal the divide, to no avail. T was arrested at Charlottesville and he experienced a round of State oppression with the FBI coming to his house and demanding to interrogate him and his family (See Image 14).

Throughout this chaos, we tried to put our heads down and retreated to our prisoner support work with our Anarchist Black Cross collective. We wrote letters, and organized to disrupt the Fraternal Order of Police when they came to

We are adding this here as relevant evidence that Jennifer Gaddy consistently engages in a pattern of misinformation. During the organizing for “Unite the Right 2.0”, the rallies that were taking place in Murfreesboro and Shelbyville, Tennessee, we received word from a source on the Murfreesboro council that there was a person attending organizing meetings in Murfreesboro introducing herself as Phaedra. Upon further inquiry, this is what we discovered.

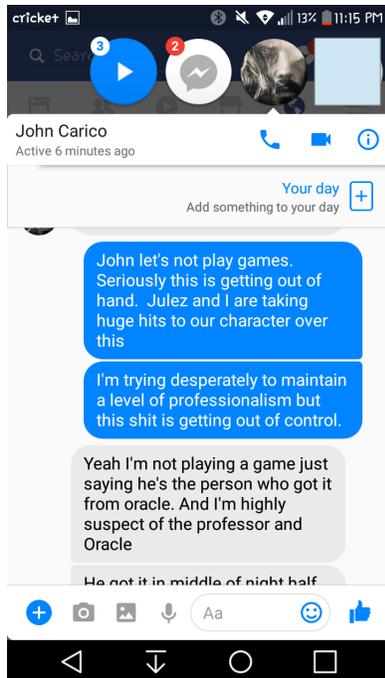

Now we will show some screenshots of conversations between Phaedra and Jae Carico. It is relevant to note that until Jennifer became a factor, our relationship with Jae Carico was professional and cordial. Eventually, though we had only even met Jae in passing and had only communicated via phone or messenger, that relationship would diminish as rumors were spread by the twins and Nashville/Great Lakes Antifa.

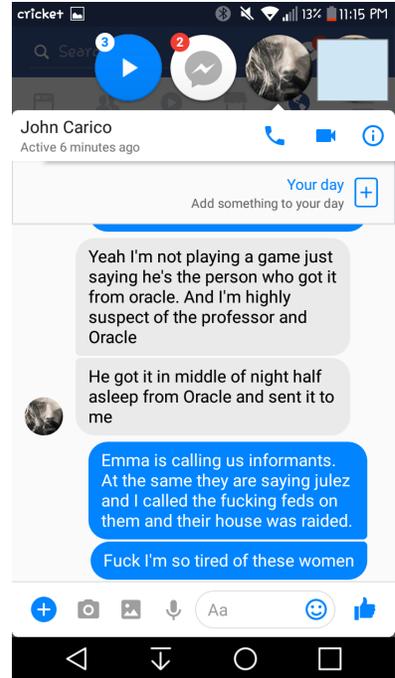

The situation with Carico: 1.

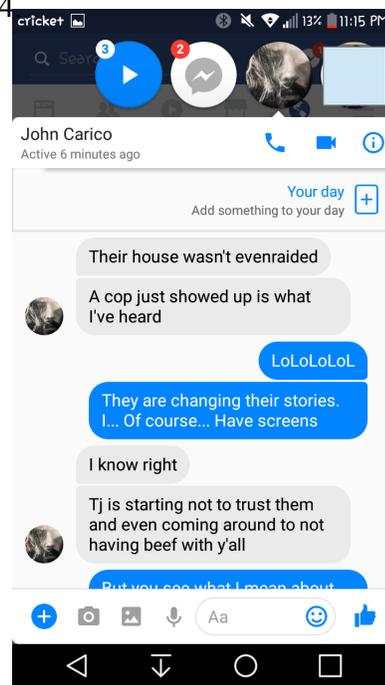

2.

3.

4.

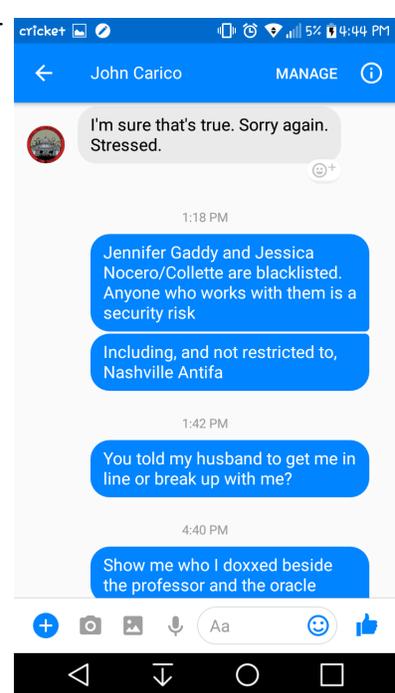

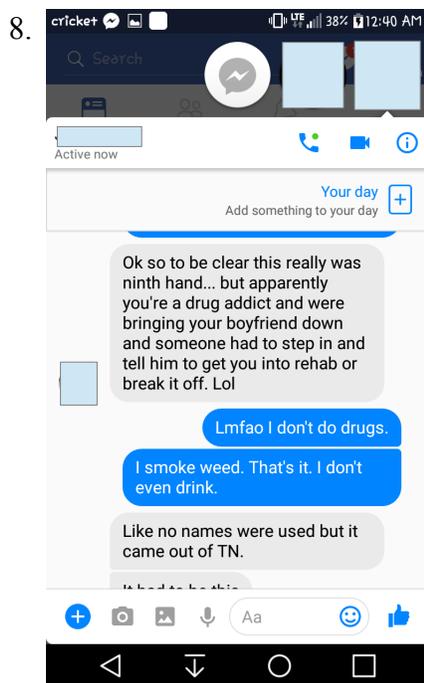

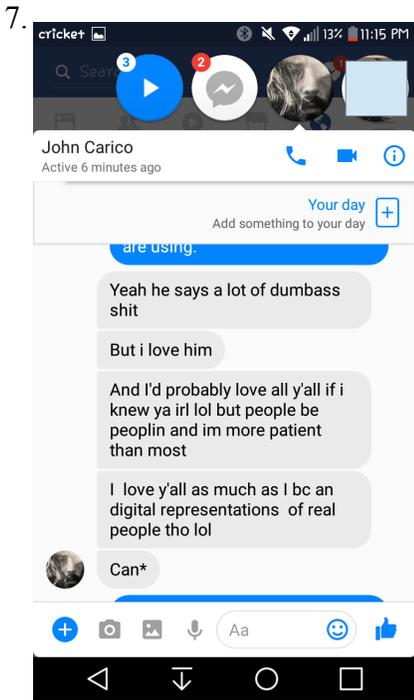

5.

6.

As we can see, Carico clears up the issue of Jessica's house being raided, and confirms that TJ was in fact lying when he accused Julez and Phaedra of stealing a VPN from him. We can see that rumors about Phaedra are being spread from within Tennessee. Here we see that Phaedra is responding to a voicemail that Carico left Julez, telling him to “get Phaedra in line or break up with her”. We have a record of that voice mail.

Why we called out Emma Berger (member of TN IWW) and all who defended her:

This is a blatantly racist statement to make. It is police apologetics. She didn't sugar coat her words and we didn'y sugar coat our response.

And again their included information is without context. There were no formal charges brought against J and no process to remove him from the IWW. This is really inconsequential when you consider the fact that their account of kicking him out of Nashville AntiFa and making attempts to make peace were false and fabricated. I'm not going to spend too much time here because we stand behind the fact that the conduct of the members of the TN IWW involved in this situation was unbecoming of the standards of the IWW.

Next: Page 7

town. We came out in solidarity with workers at Target who were not being paid their wages. We stood against folks who attacked a mosque in our home state. We fed the unhoused. But the attacks continued. It reached a pinnacle this week when one of our collective members received a veiled threat in her legit forward-facing professional social media account. It appeared to be a Nazi or Alt-Right soc account threatening to doxx her. But the soc still included the legal name of the person in the URL of the account. It was Phaedra attempting to intimidate our member (See Image 15). Then, immediately following this threat, the ARA network release a damaging doxx on IDAVOX, the mouthpiece of One People's Project ran by Daryl Lamont Jenkins. The doxx is scathing. It releases the legal names of affiliates of Nashville AntiFa, Great Lakes AntiFa and their unaffiliated family members with heavy accusations of that they are state infiltrators. Immediately, our networks contacted us asking for clarification. Some antifascist pages post death threats (See Image 16). We convened a facebook group message to discuss all of the evidence that the ARA network has and what we have, with Daryl Lamont Jenkins mediating on behalf of IDAVOX. We also convened a signal chat to discuss the evidence (all of which has been presented above for clarity). I was asked to present his story as well, prompting Julez to attempt to intimidate him from speaking to Daryl (Image 17). Holly, the Louisville ARA organizer even admits in the signal chat that they have no evidence that our collective members are state actors (See Image 18), they just think they are "disruptive". In the end, the doxx was taken down from idavox.com for lack of evidence against our collectives, but the ARA network continues to share the text in that publication assiduously on social media to provoke anger and resentment at our collectives with NO CREDIBLE EVIDENCE, prompting us to issue this statement.

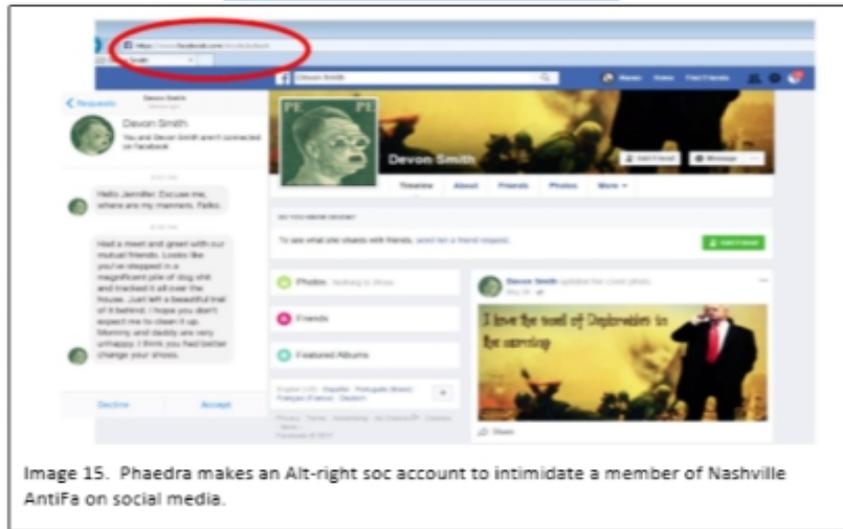

Image 15. Phaedra makes an Alt-right soc account to intimidate a member of Nashville AntiFa on social media.

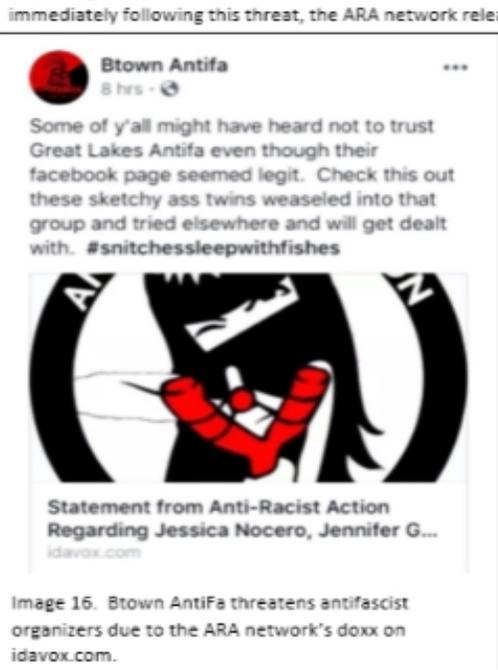

Image 16. Btown Antifa threatens antifascist organizers due to the ARA network's doxx on idavox.com.

We have attempted to do right by this community. We have tried to keep this disagreement between our collectives, but this type of behavior cannot be tolerated in our circles. We cannot have leftists doxxing other leftists and snitchjacketing them to provoke threats and mistrust. Our collective is irrevocably damaged by these actions and individuals within our

At this point we have released statements from our network and have seen corroborating statements released from other networks. We don't deny that we were not shy about confronting them both online and offline. At this point, the amount of false information, rumors and all out lies that had been spread were coming from not only Jennifer and Jessica, from Nashville AntiFa, but also from TJ, Carico and Great Lakes AntiFa. There comes a point when enough is enough. We are at that point now. The rumors continue to spread and grow in number. We continue to hear more and more accounts from people experiencing the same patterns exhibited by Jennifer Gaddy (Professor) and Jessica Nocero (Oracle).

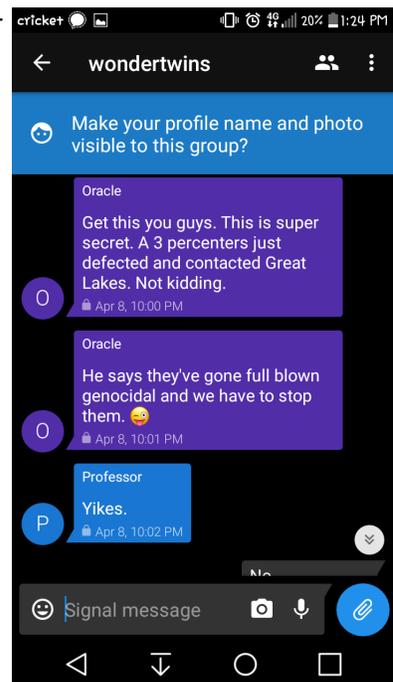

1.

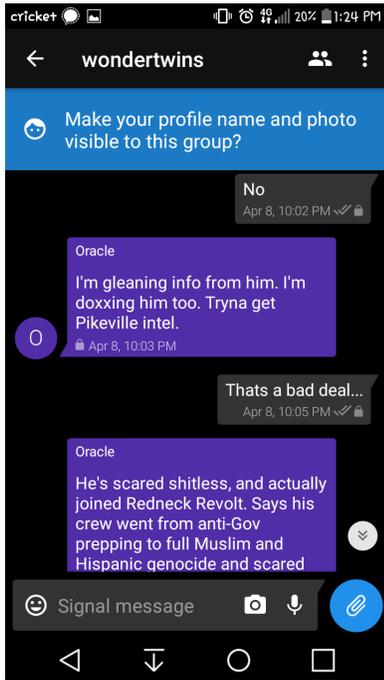

2.

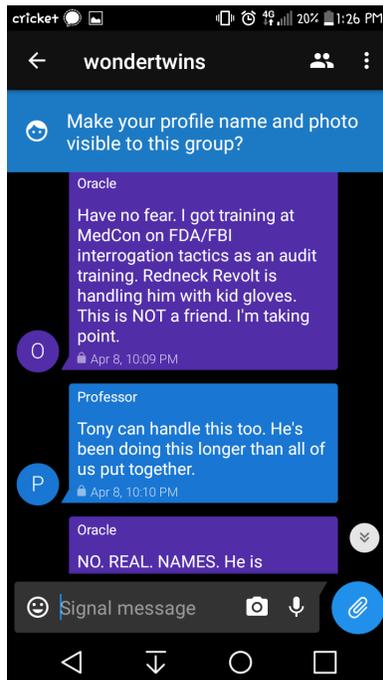

1.

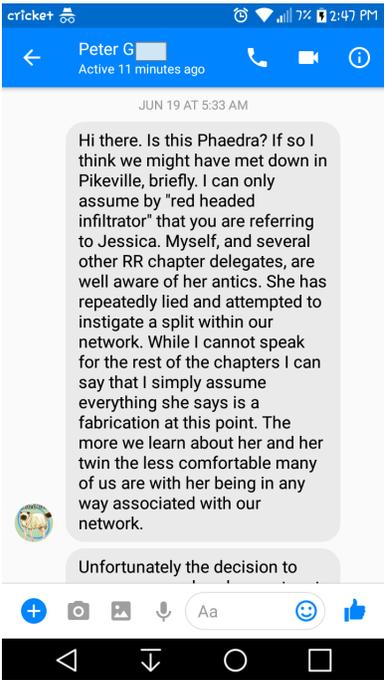

2.

3.

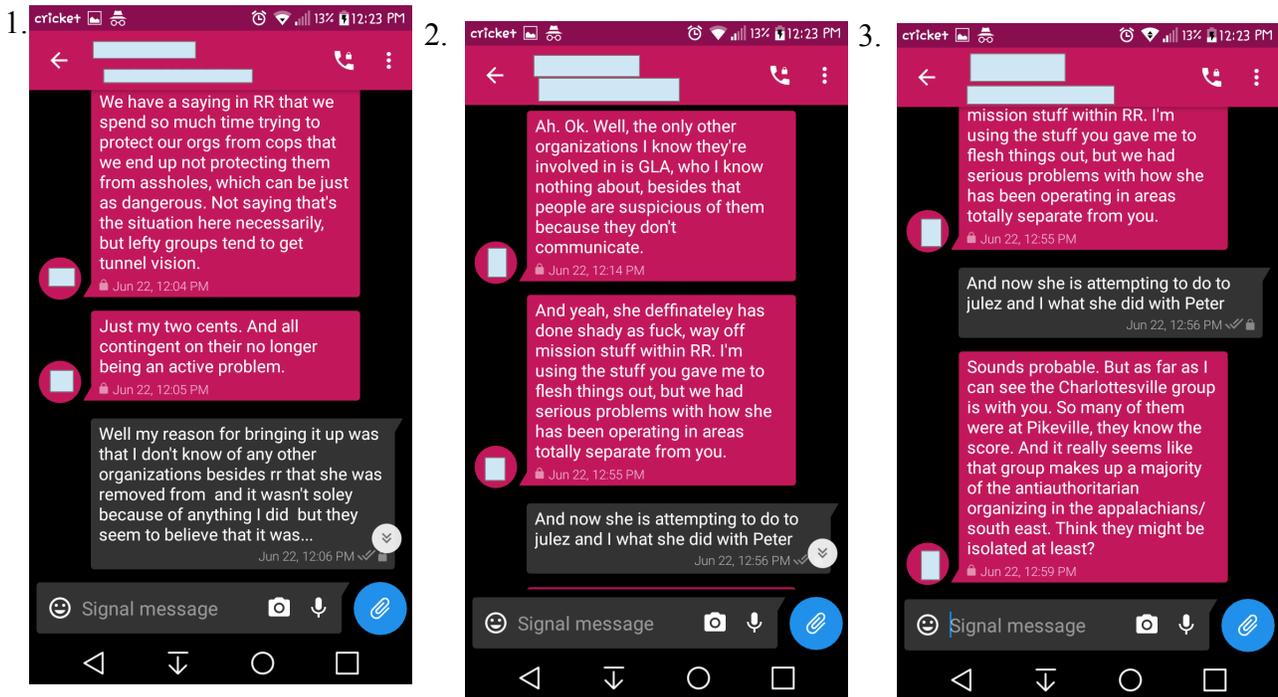

1.

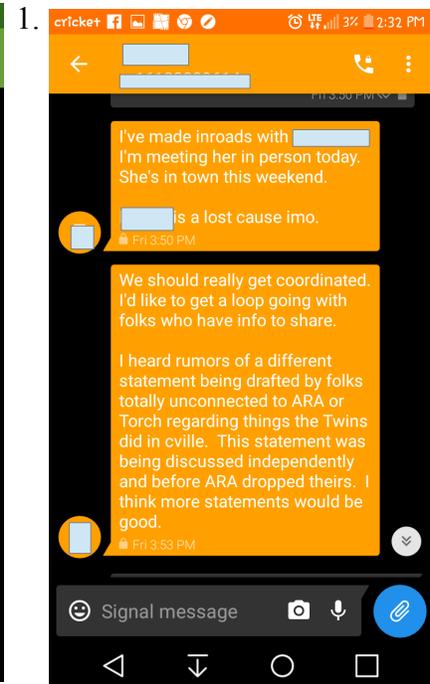

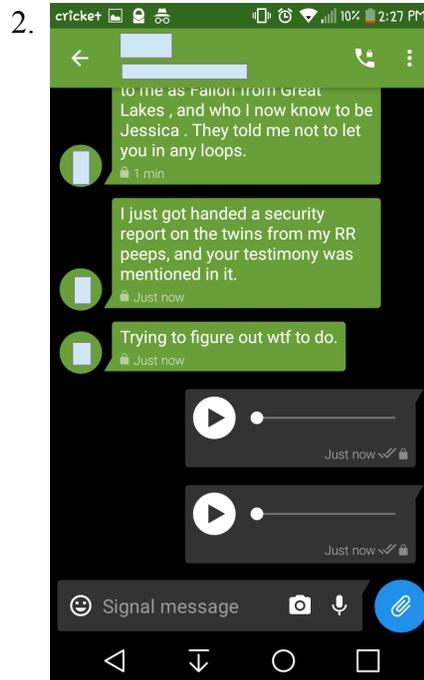

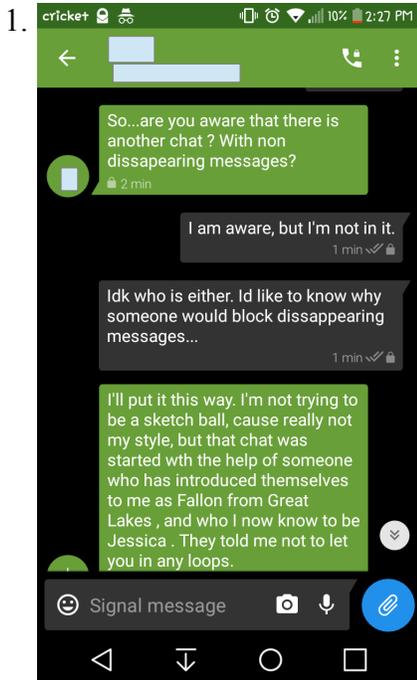

Peter G (bottom right screenshot on previous page) is the 3 percenter they discuss in the above screenshots.

Below shows a conversation with a member of Redneck Revolt about the situation.

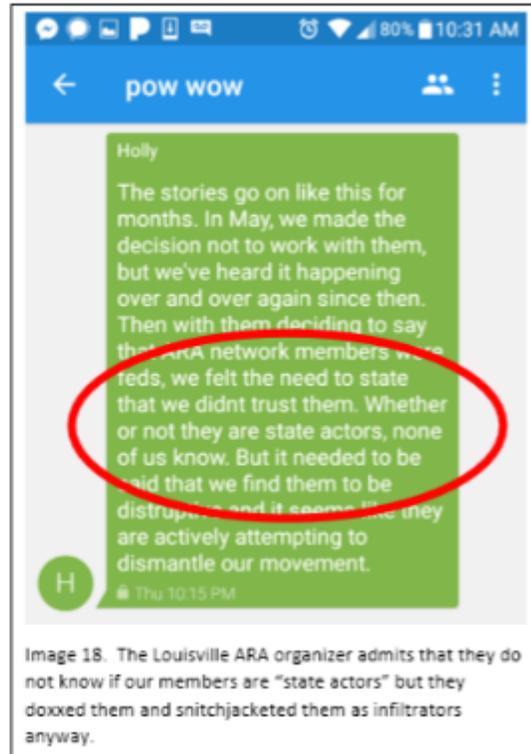

The number of folx we have spoken to from AG's across the southeast and northeast regions to let us know that they had the same experience with GLA and the twins after we released our statement is enough for us to know that whether they are fash or feds really doesn't even matter at this point. They enter spaces and use their positions of privilege and resources to infiltrate those spaces and cause damage.

We ended up having so many people and AG's, in fact, that a secure loop was created and upwards of 20 representatives from those AG's were present to discuss the almost identical experiences they had with these people. We weren't kidding when we said too many sources and incidents to site. The information we are putting here is not even a third of what we have gathered. Lets look at the last page.

collective have been placed in harm's way. These individuals are good people, and they are committed activists. They deserve better than what they've gotten, and making a mistake is something we have all done during organizing. It shouldn't be a death sentence, or result in the kind of attacks and assiduous badjacketing we have received and our friends in these other collectives have received. We ask our community to stand with us in asking for justice, helping us seek remediation for this.

First of all here on this page they use a screenshot sent from a phone number that is in Kentucky, and say that it is Julez sending the text message. We know who sent the text and it wasn't Julez. He is pretty upfront and clear about what he has to say to whoever he has to say it to. This was not him. It's ironic that they put these two shots together and claim one is Julez. You do the math.

The twins, Nashville AntiFa and Great Lakes AntiFa have engaged in a rather lengthy and dramatic campaign to destroy the character of not only Julez and Phaedra, but the ARA and TORCH Networks and Redneck Revolt and have done absolutely nothing to respond in accountability or address any concerns that anyone in any respective networks have. The statement that this communique is written in response to presents false information and information so far removed from its context that it loses its meaning. The narrative put forward in the Nashville Antifa statement is not created to faithfully represent the course of events, but rather as retaliation for our coherent and effective attempts to keep our organizations safe.

People had questions about why there was and is beef between Nashville ARA, ARA and Great Lakes AntiFa and Nashville AntiFa. These are the answers to those questions. There are many things and incidents that we haven't even touched on in this communique that are of equal importance and anyone that has any questions can feel free to reach out to us at aranashville@protonmail.com

Ultimately, when people are attacked, they have a right to defend themselves from false allegations and personal attacks on character. It is especially important in these activist circles that we speak out and call out these behaviors when we see them, especially when they are repeated behaviors and we can see a pattern and identify it as dangerous to our circles. Take this for what it is, for whatever it is worth to you.

We do not trust or work with, in any capacity, ever, under any circumstances, any member of Nashville AntiFa, Great Lakes AntiFa, Jennifer Gaddy & Jessica Nocero or anyone that does work with any of those people. This is a stance that is taken by the entire ARA Network, TORCH Network, The Holler Network, Solidarity & Defense, and multiple AG's within Redneck Revolt. The links below are links to statements made by ARA, Cleveland Antifascists and Solidarity and Defense.

It is also worth noting that since IGD (It's Going Down) was made aware of them and published the statement by Cleveland, the twins and Great Lakes AntiFa have engaged on a similar smear campaign against them, similarly accusing them of being or working with the FBI. They now publish through Enough is Enough. Should the need arise for another communique and we need to address issues we haven't discussed here, we will make that publication.

We will end here by saying that we aren't doing this work for attention or for social capital or for a hobby. We do this work because we love and care deeply for those we work with and fight for marginalized folx who are affected by hate and state oppression. There is no room within the work for people who are here to cause drama and fighting among us. We do not know for sure whether the twins and their groups are fash or feds, but we do know with certainty that they have caused damage to our ability to work and organize in the past and we have worked to set the record straight. We appreciate our comrades who believed in us from the beginning, who knew the truth and stood by us and continue to have our backs.

-Nashville Anti-Racist Action

¹<http://facebook.com/nashvilleara/posts/1937197919851735?pnref=story>

²<http://solidarityndefense.net/2017/12/15/solidarity-defense-statement-on-great-lakes-antifa/>

³<http://itsgoingdown.org/statement-great-lakes-antifa-cleveland-antifascist-network/>